Candle That Holds A Miracle

House Build Magic – They live in the big house at the top of the road. Tiny A whole. Little town

The Madrigals

This, open, is almost making me cry! why!

The moment is great. We've moved past Rotoscoping and into some great moment

Mirabel didn't get a gift, but she was leading the whole town in a song.

Thought must go perfectly – Abuela

all these people are too tall

no poems but she can make stuff w/ cloth

Thus a slope shifter consider

maybe I'm just hurry

I bet it gives them what they need.

A hard time getting a sense of scale. They could all be tiny!

and if they are content?

She's not in the group picture!

antonio's girl is "animals" which seems kind of to break the army kingdom.

freezes time to do a song

every song, Chills

It was dark and there were cracks everywhere, the candle almost went out — but only when she was alone, just after the song.

Arepas!

The house appeared when the grandfather "disappeared"

flower girl is maybe getting an arranged marriage too perfect. no one cares about how she feels?

Such a perfect match so good for the encanto

Louisa starts songs too

"no mistakes" teary

assembles some bits of glass that appears to say that its mirabel's fault.

what is destroying the magic — mirabel?

Magic is failing or Louisa's strength anyway, along w/ her self confidence

They seem to think

He creates problems

Listening girl is welcome in Isabel/flowers Betrothed.

NO ONE KNOCKS

Magic based in self confidence ? most clearly w/ weather girl

How much Abuela knows then?

"Sound of falling sand" throwing salt and sugar

Bruno patches the cracks this whole time

He's been behind the family tree in the kitchen. Presumably he's eating w/ them.

Bruno has OCD!

Lin Def wrote Bruno as self insert

Abuela cares most about the house.

People were upside down sometimes. 'vallio mirabel's got a butterfly on her shirt — so does the candle flowers confesses that she feels constricted by perfection — embraces imperfection

this honesty heals the crack

Mirabel tells Abuela that its Abuelas High standards and unforgiving nature that is causing these cracks — and the house falls and the candle burns out. Mirabel walks out through the crack in the Mountain.

Louisa - Stony Isabel - Rivers

Mouse flashback seeing the first one entirely in Spanish Abuelas grief imbued the candle and literally raised an impenetrable wall of stone isolating them from the outside world.

Most unrealistic thing so far is old country grammie admitting she's wrong. The split Mountain is good

The stars don't shine they burn!

They rebuild the house (non magic) and when they finish she gets to put the doorknob on.
They get the magic back b/c the designer it
