

Alpha Delta Pi

BE THE FIRST

Collegiate Advisory Committee

JANUARY 2023 - DECEMBER 2023

Vision: An enhanced membership experience based on direct collegiate input on sorority initiatives and relevant trends affecting our campuses, chapters, and organization.

Mission: To offer input and perspective to Grand Council, International Officers, alumnae volunteers, and staff; helps ensure sorority initiatives are relevant and focus on providing a positive membership experience that meets the needs of our undergraduate membership.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serve on an advisory committee to Alpha Delta Pi as a voice of our undergraduate experience on issues and trends facing college students and sorority communities;
- Provide feedback and suggestions on education, leadership, and training initiatives for Alpha Delta Pi;
- Share ideas on how processes can be improved upon to better meet the needs of collegiate members;
- Participate in phone calls and email correspondence as needed;
- Provide a forum for exploring collegiate issues and collecting feedback;
- Other duties as needed and assigned.

Avery Arends

BETA EPSILON – UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Avery Arends found her home in Alpha Delta Pi at the Beta Epsilon Chapter at the University of South Carolina in 2022. As a Cardiovascular Technology major, she plans to become a Physician's Assistant. Avery serves as her chapter's Archivist and hopes to increase the chapter members' knowledge of the organization's history. While contributing to the Collegiate Advisory Committee, she aims to be a voice for herself and Beta Epsilon and to provide insight that will strengthen ADPi. She looks forward to gaining a better understanding of the operations of our International Organization and building relationships with sisters.

Liv Beaudoin

ETA – UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Liv Beaudoin came home to the Eta chapter of Alpha Delta Pi at The University of Alabama in 2021. She is double majoring in Political Science and News Media with minors in Psychology and General Business on the Pre-Law track. She is enrolled in an Accelerated Master's Program which will lead her to earn her bachelor's and master's degrees concurrently. Previously, she has served Eta as Director of Alumnae Engagement and as a member of various committees. Liv is honored to be a member of the Collegiate Advisory Committee and strives to gain a wider knowledge of all aspects of Alpha Delta Pi so she can best assist in strengthening the bond between Grand Council and chapters and looks forward to the relationships that will help form.

Madelyn Brumley

EPSILON EPSILON – TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

Madelyn Brumley came home to the Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Alpha Delta Pi at Texas Tech University the Fall of 2020. She is a senior studying Business Management with a concentration in entrepreneurship and is on track to graduate in December 2023. Since joining Alpha Delta Pi, she has held the positions of Leadership Engagement Specialist, Director of Primary Recruitment, and currently serves as President. While serving on the Collegiate Advisory Committee, she hopes to provide her knowledge of the current collegiate experience to develop ideas on how to increase retention rates and grow connections with other Alpha Delta Pi chapters.

Elyse Cronic

ALPHA OMICRON – OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Elyse Cronic came home to Alpha Delta Pi at the Alpha Omicron Chapter at Oklahoma State University in 2021. She is pursuing degrees in Chemistry, Pre-Medicine and Microbiology & Cell and Molecular Biology with Certificates in Ethical Leadership and Undergraduate Research. She has found her passion for people to be her driving force while serving her chapter and campus community. Elyse currently serves the AO chapter as the Vice President of Member Development and previously led as the Director of Facility Management. She aims to provide her knowledge of the collegiate experience, strengthen servant leadership among sisters, and take every opportunity to learn from and support the International Organization through the Collegiate Advisory Committee.

Jordan Dutremble

EPSILON ETA – MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Jordan Dutremble is a junior at Mississippi State University pursuing a degree in Psychology with a focus on pre-nursing. After graduation, she plans to attend nursing school. Since coming home to Epsilon Eta in 2020, Jordan has held the position of Director of Primary Recruitment and currently serves as the Recruitment Specialist. She has participated in various committees and acted as an Alpha Session Leader and Pride Leader. Jordan has also contributed to the Mississippi State Panhellenic community as a Panhellenic New Member Facilitator. In the future, she looks forward to establishing connections with new sisters through the Collegiate Advisory Committee and bridging the gap between Executive Office and chapters nationwide.

Ginette Griffin

GAMMA THETA – UNIVERSITY OF MOUNT UNION

Ginette Griffin found her forever home in Alpha Delta Pi at the Gamma Theta Chapter at the University of Mount Union in 2020. She is a Marketing Major with a minor in music. She currently serves her chapter as Vice President of Operations and previously served as the Wellness Specialist and Operations Specialist. From the very beginning, Ginette has aimed to be as involved as possible, whether that is through leadership or other engagement. The Collegiate Advisory Committee came as a new opportunity which would offer her both leadership and involvement which better strengthen her bonds in the connections and sisterhood of Alpha Delta Pi.

Paige Henrick

ETA – UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Paige Henrick came home to Alpha Delta Pi at the Eta Chapter at the University of Alabama in Fall of 2021. She is on track to receive her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree in Spring of 2025. Paige has held many ADPi leadership roles and served on several committees. Her involvement includes the Philanthropy committee, Parent Relations committee, Homecoming committee, and Recruitment committee. She held the position of Parent Relations Chair as a freshman and currently serves as the Vice President of Membership Experience. Paige is grateful for every opportunity that has come her way and is excited to bring her knowledge to the table to better the experience for those collegiate women who will come after her.

Kaylee Jansema

IOTA GAMMA – UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, DAVIS

Kaylee Jansema found her home in Alpha Delta Pi at the Iota Gamma Chapter in Fall 2020. She is double majoring in History and Anthropology at the University of California, Davis, and is also pursuing a minor in German. She plans to follow a career path in archaeology or archiving. Since day one, Kaylee has been involved in her chapter, serving as Ronald McDonald House Specialist, Chapter President, and now Director of Ritual Education and Chapter Foundation Ambassador. Kaylee is excited for this opportunity to serve on the Collegiate Advisory Committee, and she looks forward to working with these sisters to give insight on ways to strengthen our sisterhood.

Chloe Pudwill

EPSILON ZETA – TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Chloe Pudwill came home to the Epsilon Zeta Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi at Texas State University in the Fall of 2020. She currently serves as the Chapter's Vice President of Operations and previously served as Vice President of Membership Experience and Community Service Specialist. She is a Dance Education Major and Mass Communications Minor with a passion for helping others. Chloe is overjoyed to have the opportunity to learn from and work alongside ADPi Grand Council Members and the Collegiate Advisory Committee. She strives to contribute a perspective of unique collegiate experience to the committee and aims to act as a voice for current issues that sisters across the country are facing today.

Jenna Snow

ETA – UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Jenna Snow is a junior from the Eta Chapter at The University of Alabama. She is majoring in Public Health with a minor in Public Relations, with aspirations to attend law school. Jenna was honored to have been an Executive Office Intern this past summer, as well as having the opportunity to have served on the Executive Board of the Eta Chapter as the Director of Delta Experience. She is looking forward to working with all of these wonderful women from her own chapter as well as other chapters from around the country, hoping to bring the energy and passion about the collegiate experience, and all that ADPi has to offer women everywhere.

Emily Strickland

EPSILON ETA – MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Emily Strickland found her home at the Epsilon Eta Chapter at Mississippi State University in 2020. She is a Civil Engineering major pursuing a minor in mathematics as well as a certification in surveying. Emily is serving her Executive Board for the second time as Director of Facility Management, and she served previously as the Vice President of Member Development. Through the Collegiate Advisory Committee, Emily plans to make new friendships, connections, and gain a better understanding of issues being faced. She wants to be a leader and a voice for everyone who she represents.

Aimee Weber

ALPHA GAMMA – UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

Aimee Weber came home to Alpha Delta Pi at the Alpha Gamma Chapter at the University of Missouri in 2020. She is a junior pursuing a degree in Secondary Education with a minor in Political Science. Aimee previously led Alpha Gamma as Chapter President and currently serves as the Director of Alumnae Engagement. She is excited for her experience on the Collegiate Advisory Committee, as her time spent serving her chapter has deepened her love for Alpha Delta Pi and provided her with a helpful background in chapter operations. Aimee looks forward to connecting with new sisters and engaging in service to ADPi at the international level.

Adelaide Wedholm

THETA BETA – COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Adelaide Wedholm ran home to Alpha Delta Pi in Fall of 2021 to the Theta Beta Chapter at Coastal Carolina University. She is a double major in Biology and Coastal Sustainability and Resilience with hopes of going to law school and or continuing her education to receive a Ph.D. Adelaide served as Tabulating Chair, Junior Panhellenic Delegate, and Intramurals Chair her first year. After completing these terms in her chapter, she became the Vice President of Philanthropy for her College Panhellenic. Her goal is to hold her community and sisters to the personal goals they set for themselves while being a role model for all members in the community.

Jessica Zajac

EPSILON ETA – MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Jessica Zajac came home to Alpha Delta Pi at the Epsilon Eta Chapter at Mississippi State University in 2021. She is an Accounting and Management double major with plans to become a Certified Public Accountant in the future. Jessica currently serves as the Vice President of Finance and previously served as the Finance Specialist. During her term on the Collegiate Advisory Committee, she hopes to learn how a large organization functions and to further her understanding of how new ideas implemented in ADPi affect chapters of all sizes. Jessica is excited to be able to make a difference in ADPi and create a stronger sisterhood for the years ahead.