Dear Rene,

Was so glad to hear from you and to know you are in a lovely part of Italy. For myself I can't say as much. It is so dog-gone hot I don't think I can stand very much more of it.

I have still been trying to find out where you are. There have been quite a few 442 boys around but none of them seem to know where A. T. is.

I'll find out for you and surprise you one of these days.

I am now stationed at Florence and working at the Airport. I can't say I like it very much for it is only serving transients and you never get to know anyone or have a feeling of belonging to any outfit.

What are your plans on going home? Have you been told yet? Is Lt. Schiller still with you? I do hope you are all fine and well and I hope to see you very soon. Sincerely, Shirley
