

buses, and he said he had a brother in Company A of the 100th, and even he didn't know what his brother did during the war. An embarrassing incident happened to me concerning the general about two weeks after we returned to Hawaii.

BETTY, myself and a couple of our granddaughters were lined up at Manoa McDonald's after church, and BETTY started talking to the person in the next line. I gave her a funny look, and she whispered to me, "That's General ONO." And so it was! Another of the many times my memory failed me.

ROBERT KATAYAMA gave a very precise speech—it almost seemed like he had committed everything to memory. RON OBA did a change of pace, and gave a somewhat humorous recollections. Anyway, to me those were the highlight speeches by the Hawaiian contingent, and as JAKE JICHAKU would say, "They did us proud."

On the day of the unveiling, there was a big crowd on hand because the whole camp was opened. While the speeches were going on, I noticed a woman with grandchildren in tow looking around as if she were looking for a specific person. We made eye contact because I was in an aisle seat and she asked me, "Do you know CLARENCE TABA? Is he here?" CLARENCE happened to be a member of our church, I said. In fact, he's been our treasurer for over 20 years. This woman explained that she and her sister got to know CLARENCE at Camp Shelby, corresponded throughout the war and even afterwards for a while, but lost contact. She wrote a address and short note on the back of an envelope which I happened to have. With my memory loss, I never thought of taking a snapshot of her for CLARENCE. I called CLARENCE soon as I returned. He surprised me by being at the church the following Sunday as he usually comes only when he's needed there as our treasurer. In our conversation, he explained that he met them initially at a church in Hattiesburg. Knowing CLARENCE, I'm sure that's the truth, but then his wife was listening to us on the side.

The day of the unveiling was a long one because there were also a parade, flyover of various types of aircraft, a parachute drop, a mock battle with guardsman dressed as Germans (I felt sorry for them with their heavy greatcoat in the heat), and display of all kinds of hardware for the large Hattiesburg audience. Many of us were so beat about 3 p.m., including BETTY and I, that we missed the museum visit as we caught the bus back to the hotel as there was a banquet in the evening.

Appropriately, Sunday June 18 was our Memorial Service and it started at 9 a.m. so there wasn't much rest for the wicked. It was refreshing to see something unique injected into the ceremony. A pretty lass from Hattiesburg played the bagpipe for the "Call to Worship," and then she played "Amazing Grace," one of my favorite hymns so I knew things were going to go well. And it did!

Former "Go For Broke" chaplain GEORGE AKI gave the address entitled, "That Which Remade America," and the gist of his address was that events that went against the flow, made a lasting impact on the U.S. Examples he cited were the Revolutionary War, the protest against the Vietnam War, and the Relocation Camps. These events profoundly changed the attitudes of Americans, and I heartily agree. So all the addresses that interested us veterans were very well prepared and received by the overflowing Hattiesburg crowd in attendance.

All things eventually have to come to an ending, and now it was time to say our good-byes and depart for the many post-reunion tours. The buses were on their own without the ever present police escort. The event was well organized and even the weather cooperated. It was just like Hawaii with 88 degree temperatures both at Camp Shelby and Disney World. This trip will be long cherished by BETTY and me.

Sickness

MARY HIGA encouraged by her daughter KATHY who lives in San Francisco, to have a medical checkup because of her fast and irregular heartbeat and her continued tiredness. She had a by-pass surgery at a S.F. hospital when the doctors there discovered almost a 99 percent blockage in the arteries during the course of her medical exam. In the meantime, HIDE received a phone call of MARY's successful surgery while traveling on the airplane to go to her. Upon landing, HIDE went directly to the hospital. As fate would have it, he collapsed and stopped breathing in Mary's hospital room. It was diagnosed that he had an attack of aneurysm of the heart. Imagine if he was home alone! Both HIDE and MARY recuperating at home are doing fine at the time of this article.

Received a thank you letter dated in June from DOROTHY NAGANUMA, wife of JOHN, for our remembrance of him during his illness, which many of us were not aware of as JOHN is a occasional attendee at our chapter meetings. JOHN had a colostomy operation, feeling fine and recuperating at home and need to go back in two months to have it reconnected. Our well wishes to JOHN for a speedy recovery.

In Memorium

Info from TAY NOBORI of Oakland via phone. MASAHARU "OKI" OKEMURA we know as "MASI" of Milipitas, CA passed away on July 26, 1995. "MASI" a bachelor, was a groundskeeper, 'a jack of all trades' at the Warm Springs Golf Course. Flags were at 1/2 mast at the golf course in his memory as the golfers and management thought very highly of him. "MASI" suffered from a mirage of illness as asthma, heart problems and was on dialysis at the time of his death. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to his family.

FRANCES OHTA and DYNA MATSUDA frequented the golf course after visits to Las Vegas, joined many times by RICHARD KOTO. He had already signed-up for the October mini-reunion at the Four Queens Casino Hotel. HIDEO HIGA often went on fishing trips with "MASI" and in fact had a phone call from him in early July. His memoirs, "I Remember Co. L, 442nd RCT 1943-1945" will be published in forthcoming GFB issues. Because of the length of his memoirs, it will be done in parts.

Our sympathy and condolences to YOSHIJI &

BETTY AOKI and their families on the death of his mother, MRS. KIYO AOKI, age 100 on June 8, 1995.

June 1, 1995

25 members gathered at the Makalena Golf Course. The course was dry and to the liking of the members. LARRY NAKAHARA was the best this day as he turned in a net 64 to take the top spot. One stroke back with a 65 was TEIJI UEHARA for second. Another stroke back with 66s were RUSTY HONDA and KEN KAWATE tied for third. Still another stroke back was HERB ISONAGA with a 67 to take fifth place. Closest to the pin were: #4 YOSHI HIGA, #6 YOSHI HIGA, #11 LEFTY SUGIHARA, #14 GEORGE MURAMARU, and #17 RON OBA.

June 22, 1995

19 members assembled early in the morning at Olomana Golf Links. It was rainy on the way to Olomana in Nuuanu valley but was clear and sunny at the golf course. However, when our first foursome got to the 16th and 17th holes, they were drenched with a sudden downpour. So everyone got wet for about 2 holes. The greens and fairways were in good shape. EDDIE TAMANAHA was hot as he took first place 3 strokes ahead of the nearest competitor with a net 64. KEN KAWATE was second with a 67. GEORGE MURAMARU was third with a 68. Fourth was TOM MAYEDA with a 69. Tied for fifth were RUSTY HONDA and MASAMI DOI with 70s. Nearest to the hole were: #2 DICK UYEMURA, #8 YOSHI HIGA, #11 YOSHI HIGA, and #17 MAUI OKAMURA.

July 6, 1995

25 golfers met at Pali Golf Course. MITS HONDA and TEIJI UEHARA tied for first 2 strokes better than the others with net 69s. RUSTY HONDA came in third with a 71. MASAMI DOI was fourth one stroke back of RUSTY and one stroke ahead of three others with a 72. Tied for fifth with 73s were: KATS IBARA, LEFTY SUGIHARA, and MINORU TAMASHIRO. Nearest to the pin were: #4 KATS IBARA, #7 MAUI OKAMURA, #12 KATS IBARA, and #15 MASAMI DOI. Pali's new clubhouse and restaurant is all pau but no concessionaire yet. So we bring our own refreshments and gathered under the trees near the entrance to the golf course. Mahalo to the ki ga tsuita people as HICHI would say for donating the refreshments and pupus. Donors were: NEKA MATOI, RON OBA, HARRY TOKUSHIGE, TEIJI UEHARA, RUSTY HONDA, MINORU TAMASHIRO, YOSHI HIGA, RUSTY HONDA, DICK UYEMURA and others who I have missed. By the way, the greens were hard and did not hold. The weather was overcast but did not rain. It was hot but with the trade winds it wasn't too bad. The winners must have had their pitch and run game well in hand.

July 17, 1995

23 members gathered at the Honolulu Country Club. 6 of the 23 played ahead of us with the 522 golfers and turned their scores to us so they had 2 tournaments in one golf game. Winners this day turned in scores of either net 69 or 71. Tied for first were STEVE HIROTSU and HERB ISONAGA with the 69s. Tied for third with 71s were BOBBY HIRAYAMA, KATS IBARA, and ROCKY TANNA. This filled up the first to fifth places. Nearest to the holes were: #4 TEIJI UEHARA, #8 HERB ISONAGA, #13 GEORGE MURAMARU, and #15 LEFTY SUGIHARA.

August 3, 1995

22 golfers came to Makalena Golf Course. BOBBY HIRAYAMA nosed out 3 guys to take first by one stroke, a net 64. Tied for second with 65s were: MASAMI DOI, RUSTY HONDA, and LARRY NAKAHARA. MITS HONDA came in fifth with a 67. Closest to the pin were: #4 DICK UYEMURA, #6 HARRY TOKUSHIGE, #11 KEN KAWATE, #14 MAUI OKAMURA, and #17 LEFTY SUGIHARA.

August 17, 1995

15 golfers gathered at Olomana Golf Links early in the morning. The weather was nice and clear. The fairways were good. The greens were very fast and some people 4-putted some greens. TADASHI KUNISHIGE liked the conditions and turned in the best score of the day, a net 68. Tied for second were YOSHI HIGA and ED TAMANAHA with 70s. Tied for fourth with 72s were the two HONDAS, RUSTY and MITS. Closest to the hole were: #2 RUSTY HONDA, #8 ED TAMANAHA, #11 TADASHI KUNISHIGE, and #17 no one on the green.

As always, the 19th hole is the best. We're slowing down but some are holding up pretty well - in their talking game, that is.

Scheduled for the rest of the year: Sept. 14 @ Shafter, 8:17; Sept. 28 @ Makalena, 11:00; Oct. 12 @ Pali, 11:18; Oct. 23 @ HCC, 9:30; Nov. 9 @ Barbers Point, 8:30; Nov. 21 @ HCC, 9:30; Dec. 7 @ Ft. Shafter, 8:17; and Dec. 18 @ HCC, 9:42. Next year, for Makalena, report at least 1 hour prior to tee time. Starter will let us out half hour to 45 minutes earlier than our scheduled tee time as situation dictates.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Hawaii-Japan High School Baseball by KENNETH SARUWATARI

What many consider a very successful goodwill High School baseball series concluded with successive wins by the Oahu Series Stars over the Kyushu All-Stars.

The Kyushu team was a bit too strong for both the East and West Maui series stars. The visitors took both games by lopsided margins of 13-0 and 17-0. On Sunday, August 20, Kyushu took the first game of a double-header, 4-0, allowing but one double by Oahu. In the nightcap, however, Oahu evened the island series with a 5-2 win. Oahu, coached by MEL SEKI of Pearl City High School, continued its mastery over Kyushu on Monday by rallying in the bottom of the ninth for three runs and a 7-6 clincher. Kyushu left for home with a 3-2 victory margin.

After each of the games, we had the local and Kyushu players enjoying their snacks and dinners together. They socialized well, and gathering from the loud laughter, they seemed to be getting along famously. Amazing how language is not such a big barrier among athletes of different countries.

One of the principal reasons for the goodwill series is the homestay feature. After much agonizing and juggling, each of the 18 visiting players were given a taste of Hawaii living by staying at least two nights at the homes of TED and DOROTHY MATSUO, JACKSON and ALLEGRA MORISAWA, KENNETH and VIVIAN SARUWATARI, SAM and MICHIE SASAI, and MASA and LILLE YONAMINE. We believe the Kyushu players will remember the home stays and reflect on our different life styles. We hope we dispensed some good will, too.

We received excellent help from many club members. On Maui, "NANCY" ENDO hustled up enough drivers to transport the Kyushu delegation of 34 person to various venues. They were on time and with sufficient capacity to meet the travel needs of the group. TOSHIO deserves extra thanks, considering his personal grief on the loss of his son on August 17.

We cannot thank RICHARD HASHI enough for his outstanding help. He hosted the entire Kyushu delegation at dinner at his Happy Valley home. He opened up his home for SHADOW and MASA and myself, saving hotel costs. He loaned us three of his cars for the transportation of the group.

SHADOW KUROZUMI was not to be outdone in Honolulu. He had a group of dedicated drivers who met any and all travel needs. It seems that all you need to do is ask personally, and the boys will rally round. SHADOW's daughter treated both teams to spam musubi on Sunday.

GEORGE NAKASATO handled the hotel reservations and the Sayonara Banquet like a pro. His work with the budget and accounting problems was superb.

MASA and LILLE YONAMINE have been involved in this series for many, many years. MASA handled all of the game aspects. He named the coaches and helped them round up players. He was the main foul ball chaser too. His dedicated work helped immeasurably towards the success of the series.

LILLE was the doll of the committee. When we were stuck with a dinner problem, she went ahead and arranged a cook-out that the visitors enjoyed tremendously. Her group of Waipahu High people served great dinners on two occasions.

VIVIAN SARUWATARI and her family and 2HQ people like HERBERT & SUE ISONAGA, MORISO TERAOKA, TOSHIO HAYAMA, VIVIAN's sister, THELMA, and DOROTHY MATSUO and MICHIE SASAI put on a pot-luck dinner that more than satisfied both teams on Sunday, August 20.

All of this would not have been possible without the help of our many donors, and our officers and board of directors. We proved that the club is willing to sponsor projects that foster goodwill between peoples. The full support of the officers and directors also proves that we are willing to back projects that may not show tangible financial returns, but can result in good feelings.

Those who contributed, monetarily and in other ways, are due many thanks. Monetary contributions will be acknowledged in a later issue. People like the ISONAGAS provided tossed salad for all, baked goodies, and even cooked at the Sunday pot-luck won't even say how much they spent, just saying "That's our contribution." Same goes for the SASAIS and MATSUOS.

It was an experience, let me tell you. At times it was agonizing, funny, laughable, and what have you. But in the end, "What a good feeling." Thanks again.

442nd Regimental Combat Team Foundation by HAROLD FUKUNAGA

The Foundation has approved the funding of a project submitted by the Sons & Daughters of the 442nd RCT. This project will set up a part-time Director for the 442 Archives and Learning Center, who will manage the 442 Archives and Learning Center in the following areas:

1. Data Entry: general index of copies of the 442 Regimental Combat Team (including 100th Battalion) documents from the National Archives;
2. Oral History: video and audio tapes of interviews of 442 veterans;
3. Artifacts Collections: collection, inventory, and storage of memorabilia;
4. 442 Library: collect and catalogue donated books and materials which will be available for loan.

The Foundation has approved $30,000 for this project over a two-year period. The Foundation hopes that it can make some other meaningful contributions to worthwhile projects in line with one of the purposes of the Foundation - to promote, preserve, and perpetuate the spirit and dedication of the men of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and their history and legacy.

At the same time, the Foundation hopes that it receives more contributions from 442 members and friends to allow us to grant other donations to worthy projects. We heartily thank all our past donors, and those who have donated:

522nd Dachau Research Committee by HIDEO NAKAMINE

An article regarding a proposed documentary based on the battle of Okinawa with two photos was printed in the April-June issue of the "Go For Broke" Bulletin on page 85. Unfortunately, the captions for the two photos were switched. The corrected caption for the top photo should read, "Mabuni Hill," the site of the most fierce battle of the war, approximately 200 thousand soldiers and civilians died during the battle of Okinawa. The corrected caption for the bottom photo should read "Kenji No To Memorial" in Okinawa, erected to enshrine the spirit of 17 teachers and 289 students killed in the battle on June 19, 1945.

The producer of the documentary has rescheduled his visit to Hawaii to a later date due to the commemoration of V-J Day programs that will take place in Hawaii.

During the post WWII period, many 442nd veterans and U.S. civilians were stationed in Okinawa as workers for the U.S. occupational troops. It was during this period, the veterans got together and organized the Okinawa chapter of the 442nd Veterans Club. The military built a clubhouse for the veterans on a beach site in Makiminato, Urasoe City, Okinawa.

There are many interesting untold stories of WWII. There's a story of a local Nisei Air Force veteran who was forced to abandon a military airplane. He parachuted and landed on the top of a tree somewhere in Germany during WWII. He was captured and treated harshly during his captivity. He is retired and lives somewhere in California.
