

Henry
Kim

Dear Col. Kim:

I apologize for the delay in sending the list of WWII KIA to you. (It's PPP time of the month, if you know what I mean! )

Let me explain how we went about compiling this list:

We started with a list from the 442nd Archives and Learning Center. We requested all AJA KIA from the 442nd, 100th, MIS and 1399. She gave us a list that included Caucasian officers as well as those who were taken POW, but who survived the war. Some of the names were listed twice, for example, given names and sur names were transposed, but the serial number was identical. We determined the correct name and deleted the duplicate. In other cases the soldier was listed twice, once under his birth-name and a second time under his "acquired" name, again, the serial number was identical, so we eliminated the duplication and as much as we could included both names. For example, Masaharu "Mac" Endo.

The Editorial Board decided to include the Caucasian officers who were KIA. So we added their names.

We then did research on our own. We used material from the UH War Records Repository, we called the VA and asked them to check in cemeteries, we used obituaries and death notices published in the local papers. A valuable publication is "In Freedom's Cause" which is at the UH Library. It documents all those who died during WWII and who had roots in Hawaii. We also asked former POW's if they remembered some of the names of the MIA to substantiate whether the man survived the war. We compared lists printed by the Pacific Citizen, Ambassadors in Arms, and Shirey's "Americans." If the name appeared as KIA in 3 lists (including the list from the 442nd Archives) or if it appeared in 2 lists and there was additional documentation, such as at the library, or from the VA, we included the name. If the name did not appear on 3 KIA lists, and there was no other documentation that we could find, we did not include the name.

So Proudly We Hail:
Honor Roll of World War II
Americans of Japanese Ancestry

The following are enlisted men and officers of the 100th Infantry Battalion, 442nd Regimental Combat Team, Military Intelligence Service, and 1399th Engineer Construction Battalion who lost their lives in World War II. They were either killed in action, died as prisoners of war, or succumbed to injuries sustained in battle or in a catastrophic accident, such as a plane or Jeep crash. Although every effort was made to confirm each name through a variety of sources, it is by no means the definitive list of World War II AJA casualties.

It is to these men—most of them Americans of Japanese ancestry, but a few non-AJAs as well—that we dedicate Japanese Eyes . . . American Heart.
