Dear Frank,

God it was good to hear your voice again and to chit chat with you. I forgot to mention that Shosuke's had two operations--on both eyes--and he's got nearly 20-20 vision again. The guy is walking on clouds.....

Spoke to William Hohri and learned that MOSES is in intensive care. I presume it's another stroke. Hope he hangs in there. At least until late December.....

Enclosed are odds and ends, nothing terribly exciting. I believe Aiko has already sent you the new revelation on MM.*

Remember the six snaps or photos sent you for use at Pullman? Do you have them? No hurry, but someday it might be nice to have them back. In the meanwhile I send three (4) photos Walter ~~XXXXXX~~ took of me at the time, but we realized later that you'd asked for black/white glossies. They're so "posed" and unnatural, but we were trying our best for you!

Lots of love from us, especially to Dana and Sam Chew.

Michi
