Dear Frank,

Sept 23, 1991

Another day has rushed by. Can't delay this, so there'll be a follow up. I just couldn't get ^{all} enclosure notes typed up this evening (only seven enclosed), but I'll attend to the rest on the morrow.

Mary Kochiyama just phoned from LA to inform us about the latest tragedy of hit Choi Soo Lee. Burned 70%, ^{heavily} in critical condition. Details sketchy yet. His roommate wasn't as badly burned. Choi Soo had been on drugs for sometime, that we knew. The two must have lost everything in the conflagration of living quarters. Awful plight.

Cursed ballpoint is giving out on me as I finish this letter at P. Office.

Hope "The Big A..." is doing well. Am overwhelmed, stunned, horrified by your Cisti analogy: Am undeserving of such excessive praise. You're making my big head swell even more! In the heroic tradition Now & Can Die...

Walter sends love with

Mine

Michi

That goes for dear Dana and Sam Chew. How about some snapshots someday.
