

Jack Herzig, my fiance, was with me in L.A. Were it not necessary for him to be back at his desk in Washington, D.C., I know he would be joining the pilgrimage. Jack was so touched and saddened by YEARS OF INFAMY, Michi, as well as greatly educated through your book. Yesterday, he called Karl Bendetsen and informed him that the annual Manzanar pilgrimage was going to take place this coming weekend. This upset General Bendetsen. Jack learned through your book of the major role the General played in our evacuation. Since Jack lives in Virginia, he and I take turns visiting each other on weekends. When he comes up to New York one of these weekends, I would like to have Jack himself tell me about his conversation with General Bendetsen.

Part 2 1st
letter I ever received from
Aiko