Dear Frank, my love,

It's always such a joy to hear from you. Thank you for your always exhilarating phone calls and the update ~~of~~ on your activities.

Before I forget, here are the two addresses you need:

Perry Como

305 Northern Blvd (302)

Great Neck, NY 11021

(Mickey Glass attends to all the requests in correspondence. Tell him that Michi sends love to him.)

Ms. Miko Taka
1415 Summitridge Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

(213) 275 0691 If the number is incorrect, Betty Shikata's married name is Blondheim.

Since you are working with Paul a lot, I won't send you the stuff on Wakayama et al which I sent him. I assume that you share, compare notes.

By the way, what's all this about your wanting to see old Perry Como videotapes? There were a couple of years when I didn't do the designing. There was one too when he made me sketch his costume on camera. Betty Shikata's composite photo is enclosed. I'm also enclosing spares of myself, which were made up for the Mt Holyoke Quarterly. I was interviewed for a story, which I declined unless I could talk about the RR workers and the redress due them. They said OK and asked that I submit a recent photo of myself.

But more exciting, the enclosed Yoshida RR worker case was overturned on appeal, which is a Good ones. I'm spending all my time now on trying to help find the documents which will help their case. I believe that State and area Defence Councils may be the key to answering many questions regarding FBI involvement, which the archives are not willing ~~to~~ to share with the public. Take a look at the documents Andy Russell sent me.

Gusta run -

all my love,

Michi
