Dear Frank,

Here's a thought provoking essay from a 442nd net friend, who recently resigned from the JACL over their fraudulent dismissal of The Lin Report..

He "withholds the needle" he claims, but the ~~job~~ will be felt! He (2ij:) uses simple words for change!

Day, .. We came across ^{in fact} Paul Ito's give and take. With Takeshi and Walter and I were quelling ~~at~~ ^{Paul's} ~~Paul Ito's~~ no-holds-barred critique of JACL, its failures and coverups. I recall reading that he worked once in counter-intelligence .. Good to have someone with plenty of savvy on our side.

What a mess I've made of this, but am trying to communicate from my sickbed. Michu

P.S. Don't worry, it's just a missing word.
