

MARINE LYNX

Lt. 82-1

1-Indonesians--"Marine Lynx" resting peacefully at anchor in San Francisco Bay awaiting arrival of more than 200 Indonesian seaman, for deportation to Dutch East Indies. Most of them had been in custody at New York awaiting the sailing of some vessel from the West Coast. They had arrived in Atlantic Ports as seamen aboard British and Dutch vessels but would not on Dutch or British vessels. Having refused to said out they were in this country illegally and merely awaiting the cessation of hostilities so that arrangements could be made for their deportation.
