MESS CHANGE TO BE TRIED

A new system which may eliminate standing in line is to be inaugurated at the White mess tomorrow morning, it was revealed today by heads of the Mess and Lodging division.

Each member of the family will take a card issued to them, instead of their white tags, to be punched at each meal.

Numbers stamped on each card denote a specific time at which the holders will be admitted to the mess hall.

The success of the plan depends on strict observance of the three shifts, as-

The 9:30 p.m. count was discontinued yesterday. Under the new system, clerks will check on each resident personally at 6 a.m.

for the contest, saying, "By entering this competition, you are contributing your ideas and your effort to the common cause of victory."

The theme of the posters may be based on the various phases of war activities, civil and military, war bonds and stamps, aircraft production, and Army, Navy, Marine and Air Corps enlistment.

Artisans Called By Personnel

Qualified electricians, carpenters and plumbers are in great demand now, said Lewis J. Horn, Personnel section chief, today.

Those with training and experience in these fields are requested to report to the Personnel office for interviews.

AVENUES RENAMED AFTER FAMOUS HORSES

Shigeko Oi Heads Prexies

The unanimous election of Shigeko Oi to the presidency of the Girls' Club Presidents' council highlighted a meeting of the group Sunday.

Miss Oi, chairman pro-tem of the District I V Delta club, is aided by Sachiko Ishihara, secretary.

The new president will officiate at the Recognition day ceremonies Sunday, in which all Center girls' clubs will participate.

Islanders who wish to make the acquaintance of other Hawaiian-born residents of the Center are urged to attend a meeting Sunday, 7 p.m., in the Recreation hall, according to Dick Miyagawa, temporary chairman.

A community sing and other forms of entertainment will be provided.

Change Affects Three Districts

It's Azucar avenue now instead of Avenue A, Bay View instead of Avenue B and so on down the list of avenues for Dist. IV, V, VI.

The renaming of avenues after famous horses, suggested by Assistant Center Manager Gene W. Wilbur, was completed early this week by the Utility department.

Superintendent Leo Mauch of the Center post office added his blessings to the idea, but cautioned residents to remember barrack, unit and district numbers as well as avenues in addressing.

The new names in alphabetical order are:

- A--Azucar avenue
- B--Bay View avenue
- C--Chalcedon avenue
- D--Discovery avenue
- E--Equipolse avenue
- F--Fairy Hill avenue
- G--Gillie avenue
- H--He Did avenue
- I--Indiantown avenue
- J--Jabot avenue
- K--Kayak avenue
- M--Man o' War avenue
- N--Nahili avenue
- P--Porter's Cap avenue
- R--Rosemont avenue
- S--Stagehand avenue
- T--Top Row avenue
- U--Urge Me avenue
- V--Valley Boy avenue
- W--Whirlaway avenue
- Y--Your Honor avenue

In addition to Seabiscuit avenue, there are three other well-used thoroughfares which have been named:

Bridle path -- Gallant Fox lane.

Walk between District VI and VII -- Midland lane.

Walk between showers and Grandstand -- Malicious lane.

Robeson Ballad To Be Played

Paul Robeson's rendition of "The Ballad for Americans," and Schubert's "Serenade," will be included in Sunday's Classic hour at the Grandstand.

Mrs. Kazue Niede, concert violinist, played an excerpt from Bloch's "Three Pictures of Chassidic Life" and "Gipsy Airs" by Sarasate before an appreciative audience at last Sunday's program.

Mrs. Niede was accompanied by her sister, Mary Tawara, on the piano.

The Hawaiian Surfriders will accompany Dianne Endo in a Tahitian dance and June Motoike, a new dancing star, at the community sing this evening.

Tonight's affair, 7 p.m., in the Grandstand, is open to everyone.

Philatelists

All Center residents interested in stamp-collecting are invited to a meeting this evening, 6 o'clock, at Bayground house east of the Turf club.

Willie Funakoshi of the Recreation department will preside.

Barber Keeps in Trim Through Free Haircut Service

More than 200 heads have passed through the hands of Jim Miyamoto, who operates a free barber service at B-12 U-4 A-R.

He averages seven to eight haircuts a day, but sometimes gives as many as 15. His hours are 8 to 11 a.m. and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

It takes from 10 to 20 minutes to complete a job, depending on who's in the chair. Miyamoto has found that work proceeds more swiftly if it's an older man. The younger men are more concerned with their appearance.

Hair is being worn shorter, though. The crew cut, while not wholly pleasing to the unaccustomed eye, has its virtues.

Miyamoto cuts hair for the simple reason that he likes to cut hair. He says he has to give at least three hair cuts daily to sleep.--by Miyuki Aoyama.

Feminine FORUM

By Asami Kawachi

The child said, "Mama, I want to go back to America; I want to play with Patty."

The mother answered, "Child, we are in America; see the American flag?"

The women, as mothers and teachers, have the task of molding their children who are passing through an impressionable period in vastly changed surroundings.

So that teachers may develop clearer thinking habits and mothers may foster good behavior in their children, a get-together is held each Saturday, 9 a.m. in the Recreation hall.

Approximately 600 parents and teachers attended the first meeting and heard Dr. Ichihashi, noted Stanford educator, warn, "As individuals, we must watch our daily living habits, as children cannot distinguish good from bad, and learn to a great extent by observation of people about them."

One of the young men in charge of the 5-6 age group confided that a teacher must live his pupils' lives, to familiarize himself with a child's moods.

He finds that a sullen child did not have a candy bar before class. This youthful psychologist appoints him monitor to do a simple task. The child is then entitled to a "Baby Ruth."

This column is open to Center women, young and old, who have problems to air; subjects may range from yearlings to housecleaning. Let's have an inspection of our daily living as well as our barracks. Please bring written suggestions to the PACEMAKER.

Hashiguchi and Minami edged out Frank Inouye and Francis Itaya, 21-18 21-12 yesterday evening, to win the men's title. The match was close from start to finish with Hashiguchi and Inouye playing fine offensive games, Minami's timely placement shots and good defensive play by Itaya were outstanding.

The mixed doubles champs out-fought Hashiguchi and Yone Dobashi in the finals Monday night to win, 15-8 9-15 15-12.

The men's doubles tourney drew 20 entries and the mixed doubles had 18 teams participating.

Oldster Helps Maintain Cleanliness

"I do it for the people's health and my own exercise," explained 68-year-old Keizo Takiguchi, B-8 U-9 A-3, when questioned regarding his early morning activity.

Every morning at about 5 o'clock, Takiguchi is to be seen sweeping the street and the front of each unit between Barracks 3 and 12A in District III.

Some times neighbors wake up to find their gardens already watered by him.

Before the streets were sprinkled with calcium chloride, Takiguchi often watered the streets after sweeping.--by Mitsuyo Uyeno.

FATHER'S DAY OBSERVED BY TWO CHURCH GROUPS

In one of the various church services held in the Center over the weekend, the Seventh Day Adventists heard Pastor H. Nozaki tell of the surety of following God's planned course.

Members of the Missionary Volunteer society, U. Okamoto, Selah Tagami, and Betty Kodama spoke at the Young People's service.

The Catholics heard the choir sing "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee" and a hymn in Latin. Father Swift conducted the holy rituals.

"Look Unto Me": with this topic the Rev. Sam Mizukami addressed the Adult Holiness association.

The Rev. Chiaki Kuzuhara spoke to the Young People's group on "The Need of Fearless Christians."

With a prayer for fathers, the Adult Protestants honored 85-year-old Rev. R. Nobe, retired Methodist minister. Dr. F. W. Heckleman spoke on the "Source of Salvation."

The Young People heard the Rev. J. H. M. Yamazaki speak on "An Imperative Response." The choir's anthem for both services was "God So Loved the World."

The Buddhist honored their fathers in meditation. The Rev. N. Ishiura's sermon was on "Sin and Salvation." To the Young People's group, the Rev. T. Tsuruyama told a story based on the father theme.

Takagi Wins Meet

Fudo Takagi won the ROG (rise off ground) model airplane contest at the Anita Chiquita field Sunday. Yo Sugi was runner-up and Tom Uragami came in third.

Democracy Is Not Acts of Few

The recent New York speech of Pearl S. Buck, Nobel prize winner and famous novelist, is one with which we concur heartily. She said, in part:

"I don't know a more difficult position than that in which Americans of Japanese blood find themselves today ... Now when we are at war with Japan this burden is a hundred times heavier to bear than it has ever been. Japan is today our enemy. We cannot and will not see a world where the military fascist mind is the ruler. We are enemies to that mind. I know that the Japanese Americans of whom I speak are enemies, too, of that mind. They hate the Japanese mind that is waging this war of Japanese aggression, but even those Japanese who are the most loyal to our democratic cause and to the American government... must bear the added burden of doubt and suspicion. Ignorant persons... may wreak a childish vengeance upon these Japanese Americans..."

"When such acts happen, I beg the Japanese Americans not to despair of democracy or of America. I ask it to be remembered that there are millions of other American citizens who believe in justice and fairness and equality, and that these are the true Americans."

Father Makes Fancy Baby Carriage

Have you seen a Puckish little character, wearing a derby, riding with a regal air about the stable area in a home-made baby buggy?

Well, he is eight-month-old Howard Akio Koseki, B-12A U-7 A-3. The unique carriage was made from an old washboard and scrap wood by his father, Francis.

It has a detachable awning, a safety belt and two miniature license plates bearing the Koseki I.D. number.

"Howard is always glad when I put the derby on his head, because he knows he's going for a ride," explains his mother, Mrs. Mary Koseki.--by Bob Kinoshita.

There are three sets of twins working at the White mess as waitresses. The twins are Dorothy and Irene Umekubo, Yukiko and Fukuko Sato, and Setsuko and Hideko Okada.

The Sato twins never dress alike, but this, contrary to simplifying matters, makes things worse, reports Betty Kanameishi, since everyone then thinks that one Sato girl is changing clothes several times daily.
