

" THE BEAUTY SHOP "

Women everywhere like to visit the Beauty Parlor. So when a qualified operator arrived among the internees, he had no peace, until a shop was opened. He trained many girls as operators. A building was provided, but, other than that, it was an internee project.

" THE PRINTING SHOP "

The six ton press and all necessary type was furnished by the War Prisoners Aid. Here is where the camp papers were printed and the school annual.

