CHEMISTRY LAB NEARS COMPLETION

When repairs to the science building are completed, the chemistry room will be minus the laundry tubs and furnished with desks. The present boiler room will be converted into a work laboratory and the shower rooms will be used as store-rooms. In place of the boiler will be an automatic oil heater.

The blaze that swept the laundry room, on November 11, destroyed the boiler room, part of the boys' and girls' shower rooms, caused an estimated damage of $2,000 to $3,000.

Girls Elect

Chiyoko Morooka was elected vice-president of the Girls' Club succeeding Eunice Torii who is now president. Chiyoko is a senior in Mrs. Herndon's 7 & 8 period core class.

GILBERTSON, CANDEE RESIGN Junior Jounce!

Hey kids, any of you a Junior?

Then let's tramp down to the "Junior Jounce" on December 17 and jive it out.

There's going to be a lot of kids there and here's your opportunity to meet some Tuleans, and vice-versa.

The class of '45 is beginning the year's activities with the first big social. This "Jounce", will promise a delightful evening of good refreshments for all and dancing for everyone. The time is 7 to 11:30 p.m. in dining hall 23. The mixer is for Juniors only and is sponsored by the Junior council under the leadership of Johnny Kanno.

Now, you zombies, get a rest from your dreaming and sleeping and come out and have a good time.

SCOOP!!! EXCLUSIVE!!!

Coming as a double surprise today was the announcement of the resignation of Miss Ruth Candee and Miss Gladys Gilbertson, both of the faculty of our school.

SCDOP Miss Candee quietly told "scoop-seeking" Hi-Lites reporters of her plans to return to New York City to enter social work. She added however, that she first intends to enter some eastern university to study that type of work.

Miss Candee's indefinite leave is dated for December 18th.

EXCLUSIVE Miss Gilbertson told members of an astonished and sincerely regretful Hi-Lites staff of her leaving. She will be married to Mr. Peter J. Busch of Colton, Washington. Though plans are tentative, in all probabilities, she will be married. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

special editorial

We'll always remember!

We've all been advised to relocate and re-enter the stream of American life; thus Miss Gilbertson is leaving Minidoka after Christmas vacation to be married.

The faculty and project will be losing an efficient and popular member. But that isn't where the loss will be felt most. She was one of the first teachers to start with us from bare barracks and bookless classes, to what it is now. She has been a friend and advisor to all.

But we'll miss her more. For a whole year now she has been the advisor of this staff. To us it isn't just another teacher leaving; it means the great loss of a constant friend and companion; an advisor of great wisdom and knowledge.

To one who has done so much for the education of her students, the Hi-Lites staff wish her every happiness possible and hope she will gain everything that is rightfully hers.

Thanks, MISS GILBERTSON, best of luck...always! ku

Dearest Santa

We've been attending school regularly since December 1st. Yep, we're helping Mom with the buckets of water, and really and truly we stopped snitching little sis's "oyatsu." If only you could bring us the things you gave us last year. Boy! Those ten cards of bobby pins, the box of metal curlers, and chocolate bars sure made the envy of all our friends.

This year, Santa, we're asking for only one card of bobby pins so we can present them to HANK NISHIMOTO so he can keep his hair in place.

Our two reporters have been investigating and round out MARK HASEGAW the second, wants a name for himself. May we suggest the name, FRANK TERASHIMA.

Also, we pray that you will make it possible for FRANK MURAMATSU to obtain a round-trip ticket to Kansas City, Missouri

And please don't forget those "I WON'T LOOK AT ANOTHER GIRL" pill for YOSH SUYEMATSU who is eyeing a certain new Tulean girl.

We're not the only ones looking forward to Xmas. No, sired!!! Senior MARY OGASAWARA wants to see Santa Claus, too.

This is about "emuff" to ask of you this year (not that we didn't ask for too much! Oh yeah?)---We know you won't disappoint us in the least so it's goodbye for now. Just,

Minnie and Dokie

LEGAL NOTICE:

Know ye by these present:
 Whereas R. Candee herein after known as the party of the 1st part and F. Tanaka, herein after known as the party of the 2nd part did knowing and willfully arrive at an agreed wager of 10 to 1 as to the where abouts and perigrination of J. Stalin party of the 3rd part. Be it known that the party of the 1st part will pay off on or about pay day, the rate being .10¢ or $1.00 in silver.

The moral of this tale is: innocent teachers should never wager with experienced bettors upon the unpredictable and delicate subjects concerning world-known big-shots.

Open Letter To Seniors

"Hey you, Seniors!! What's wrong? Losin' your grip? Of all these fine dances goin' on, you upper class-men seem to be mis-sin' out on the fun. Let's be alive, Man!! Are you gonna stand by watching these under-class, "wolves" have all the fun with "our" women?"

By special investigation by "this one senior" shows that the "junior hogs" are leading this "seniors" dance situation. The "sophomore wolves" are right behind, with the poor "sad case seniors" tag'in behind.. As for the "FreshyFroshs", they've rapidly climbing.

So come on, Seniors, make use of these dances. Look at your bulletin for your favorite mess hall dances.

DISGUSTED SR.

ried during the Christmas vacation. She is to leave the project on the 23rd.

In the loss of both Miss Candee and Miss Gilbertson, there will be a gap left that will be difficult to fill.

No word was given out by the central office in regard to the successors of the two teachers.

"Johnny Zero"

This is A Story of A Starry Night. It happened in the Hills of Minidoka under a Starie Moon.

In the Blue of Evening while Walking by the River with a Pistol Packin' Anna enroutte home from a dance, Johnnie Zero told her, "I have a True Confession to make to you." "You made me Love You ever since The First Time I Saw You for You Are Everything That's Beautiful."

To this she replies, "But People Will Say We're In Love". "Nothing matters when we are Happy In Love," Johnnie answered.

"Oh, Johnnie, Take Me," she cried and ran into his arms. "Embrace me" she sighed, as the Sinner Kissed an Angel.

Johnnie softly murmured "I Give You My Word, for you are My Devotion, and Everything I love." "Whenever I'm Close To You Heaven Can Wait since I'm in my Heavenly Hide-Away.

When they reached her home he asked, "When Can I see you again?" "Sunday, Monday or Always."

"Always," she whispered tenderly. "Good-bye Now."

SPORTS

RESULTS:

0-0 TIE

Braving the frigid December weather, about 500 gridiron fans witnessed the Area A prepsters battle the Area B high-school gridsters to a scoreless tie, last Sunday on the Block 16 soil.

The smooth-powered Area A machine accelerated by powerful fullback Ted Shinoda, piled up 8 first downs, while the Area B eleven led by quarterback "Rocky" Hara and "Killer" Kono fleet-footed halfback, piled up 10 first downs. Area B's Ryo Mihara booted several well-angled punts driving the "A" team back on several occasions.

Opening the second-half the "B" aggregation started to click as they soon rolled up three successive first down; advancing from their own 45 to the opponents 25 yd. line; they were abruptly halted by the stubborn defense.

Near the end of the third quarter, the "A" eleven pulled the most spectacular play of the fracas. On a punt return, Raizo Okazaki, left-half, reversed it to speedy Heide Fujii who streaked down the sidelines from his own 30 yd. line to the opponents 30 on a dazzling 40 yd. jaunt. But once again, the opposing defense tightened and the threat was squelched.

QUESTION: How do our Hunt High casaba artists keep warm playing outdoor basketball in cold Dec.?

ANSWERS:-----

Kats Okamoto: "Katie keeps me warm!"

Shig Sakamoto: "My "SUPERMAN" sweater!"

Tak Hiyama: "My six-foot red woolen flannel!"

Moto Yasuda: "I just stand around in my t-shirt and watch the girls' P.E. classes."

Giichi Yoshida: "I got a picture of Dorothy Lamour in sarong, somewhere in my wallet!"

Finals To Be Played

With four teams remaining, the Girls' R.E. Volley ball Tournament, will begin the final stages. The leaders whose squads are remaining after the first round are Aiko Haga, Tatsumi Noritake, Tameko Hirata, Kikuko Yamamoto, and Pearl Hirata. As yet, Tameko Hirata's team is the only team having completed the second match. The tournament should be completed and the "champs" determined by December 22.

As long as the weather is not too severe, the girls will be instructed in basketball. In the event of bad weather, communicable diseases, good health practices, exercise, and recreation will be discussed. Other topics of interest to the girls, such as proper etiquette and suitable types of clothes will also be discussed.

7th GRADER COPS TITLE

"He's a swell fella," quoted Coach Roth when speaking about Jimmy Tsujimura, Push-Up Champion of Hunt High School. Outclassing 650 upperclass men including the "big seniors," this 7th grader will earned the title by doing 46 push-ups.

Though "King" Tsujimura only tips the scale at 81 pounds, and stretches to 56 inches, he's all full of muscles.

Close behind Jimmy was runner-up Harry Nakamura, another "mity" 7th grader with 42 push-ups to his credit.

Think it's easy? Try it sometimes!

Construction of the gymnasium-auditorium is being delayed temporarily due to the lack of material and the labor shortage.
