

July 31, 1942

Dear George

I received ~~you~~ the comic books you sent me yesterday and I sure appreciate it. I hope I'm not causing too much trouble. At our library there's comic books but they haven't any covers so they aren't so fun.

I'm sorry I haven't wrote to you earlier but I was too busy playing and we had no papers. I'm enclosing 15¢ in stamps so that when you have time ~~you~~ I hope you'll send me books again.

Maybe we have to move to a relocation center pretty soon, the orders are not out yet though. in case we have to, I'll send a letter ~~as soon~~ as soon as we reach the place.

I'm running out of words so I'll finish this letter so good bye

Kenneth Hoi

know knew

