ELECTION FOR COUNCILMEN

TOMORROW

Election from representatives to the permanent Community Council will be held in each district tomorrow. The time for balloting has been set from 10 AM to 8 PM, according to Toby Ogawa, co-chairman of the General Election Committee. Any resident 18 years of age or over is eligible to cast a ballot at the polling station which is to be established at the dining hall of each occupied block.

Winning candidates of tomorrow's election will be inaugurated into their new positions early in January. The tenure of office is to be for 6 months from the 14th day following the general election.

To supplement the list published in the Times last Thursday, the following names of candidates were submitted this morning by the Election Committee: (Dist. 4) Sus Yamashita, Satoshi Iiyama, John Izumi, Kay Nishida, Masuji Fujii, H. Hirakawa, Isamu Uyehara, Kunimasu Akagi, Hikaru Inouye, Harry Nakamura, Hiroshi Tatsuta; (Dist. 9) George Ikeda, M. Kanemoto, Mitzi Shiraishi, Frank M. Matsumoto.

WRA OFFICIAL

VISITS

TOPAZ

Joseph H. Smart, field assistant to Dillon S. Myer and director of the Central Region WRA covering the Heart Mountain and Minidoka Relocation Projects, arrived last week from Denver, Colorado for a 3-day visit.

Smart's visit was made to consult with local administrative officials and also to acquaint himself with conditions in Topaz before leaving for Washington, D.C.

MANY PRIZES

OFFERED IN

MARATHON RACE

Among the high-light events on this Friday's New Year Day program is the Marathon Run scheduled to begin at 11:30 AM, according to the Community Activities Section. Interested residents, 16 years of age or over, are invited to sign up with the ward director nearest to his home. Co-chairmen of the event are Mas Nakamoto, 12-9-B, and Lincoln Tokunaga, 12-4-F.

Prizes will be awarded to the first 5 who finish, the oldest entrant to finish, the ward center with the most entrants and the ward center with the most entrants finishing in the first 10. Merchandise orders and plaques will be awarded.

The following route has been planned by the Marathon Committee.

News Briefs

PROPERTY: Residents who own homes must fill out "evacuee application" forms at the Project Attorney's office at Rec 4, it was announced today.

Shozo Tsuchida and Victor Abe, attorneys of this legal department, are assisting the property owners in obtaining these forms from the OPA.

Those who have previously registered their property prior to their arrival in Topaz are not required to fill out another form.

Under the OPA ruling, property owners who fail to register are subject to heavy penalty.

DRAMA: "D298" a one-act comedy will be presented to the general public on Dec. 29 from 8 PM at DH 1. Already acclaimed as success by the high-school audience last Wednesday afternoon, the hilarious play is enacted by high-school thespians.

The cast includes Florence Sasajima as Mrs. Ebb; John Katsu as Billy; Moto-ko Ishiyama as May; and Ruth Naruo as Miss Pratt. The play is under the direction of George Lewis, drama and speech teacher, and Irene Mizumi, student director.

CONTEST: Dining Halls 5 and 13 tied for first place in the interior decoration competition held last Friday, the Community Activities Section announced.

DH's 39 and 19 placed 2nd and 3rd, respectively.

FUNERAL: Memorial service for the late Mrs. Shina Ozawa, 5-2-F, will be held this afternoon from 2:30 at the Buddhist Church, Rec 28.
