CHURCH AID ASKED FOR RESETTLEMENT

may prove to be a significant one to residents of Topaz.

"The evacuation of 112,000 persons, 71,000 of whom are American citizens, having been completed, the WRA estimates that there are about 30,000 American-born citizens of Japanese extraction now in the ten Relocation Centers who will be available for private employment outside of the centers.

"In a letter to the Committee on Resettlement of Japanese Americans, 297 Fourth Avenue, New York City, Dillon S. Myer, Director of the WRA, writes, 'The War Relocation Authority has recently adopted regulations which should enable all of the evacuees who are qualified and care to do so to leave the Relocation Centers. These regulations were discussed with the War Department and the Department of Justice and have the approval of these departments. These new regulations and the program of outside employment are meeting with the approval and receiving the assistance of other agencies of the Federal Government.'

"This new policy of dispersal resettlement of evacuees deserves the support of all Christian Americans. The Government has asked the churches to help. We dare not refuse. It is a challenge to the churches to take the lead in this resettlement program.

"1. Locate jobs for evacuees at prevailing wages in the community.

"2. Prepare the community in which jobs have been obtained to receive the evacuees.

"3. Make arrangements for suitable housing, with local hotels, such as the YVCA, the YMCA and in private homes. If the job is domestic service, make certain that living quarters are suitable for intelligent Americans.

"4. Act as counsellor or guide to evacuees. They will need sympathetic and understanding fellowship outside of their jobs.

"Some assurance that the presence of the evacuees will cause no disturbance in the community to which they go is required by the WRA. A letter from a prominent citizen, clergyman, or committee that is organized to assist the Resettlement program, stating that in your opinion the evacuee will be welcome, is all that is necessary. You cannot guarantee that there will not be any disturbance, but you can sound out public sentiment and be reasonably certain of public acceptance if you prepare the ground well.

"Once the evacuee leaves the center he is as free as any other American citizen. He is requested to keep the WRA informed of changes in address or employment. The employer assumes no more responsibility for the evacuee than he does for any other American in his employment. The evacuee may be discharged at any time and he may quit his job. He will be free to accept employment in another locality, or he may return to the Relocation Center.

"It is expected that several thousand applicants for resettlement will soon be available. These people represent a real cross-section of American skills;

A Letter

The following letter was received from Alex Yorichi, former member of the Times staff, now a private of the student detachment at Camp Savage, Minn.:

"There are several hundred nisei students here from the army and the centers; the former being in the majority. The students have classes both day and night--the evening ones being compulsory study hours. At present we're running through so many chapters a day in the language book we're getting dizzy.

"The twin cities--St. Paul and Minneapolis--are located about 20 miles from here. Both cities have a handful of nisei residents--mostly domestic workers. They all seem to have good employers, but they maintain that the wage scale for domestic work is low. Majority of the Topazans are in St. Paul. They believe there are more jobs for nisei here."

domestics, secretaries, office workers, scientists, technicians, farmers, etc.

"From all points of view, now is the best time for relocation outside the centers. If Japanese and Japanese Americans are held until after the war, they will be forced to find employment at a time when there will necessarily be great competition. Long time inactivity will have reduced their competence and skills.

"If they leave the Centers now when there is such great need for their skills and services because of the labor shortage, they will be going into average American communities where they can become economically and socially established."

NEED FOR RED CROSS UNIT HERE

There is one humanitarian organization which is needed in any fair-sized community and that is the Red Cross. This need is especially felt in any pioneer community in which facilities are limited, and Topaz belongs in this category.

One of the prime purposes of the Red Cross, of course, is to take care of people when disasters, such as big fires, floods and earthquakes, strike communities. There is no denying the possibility that a large fire would be a disaster of the first magnitude to Topaz and that the Red Cross would be called upon in such an emergency. This possibility alone would justify having a Red Cross chapter in the City.

But the Red Cross can serve the community in many other ways. It can strive to instruct as many residents as possible in the principles of first aid (and knowing first aid may often save a person's life before a doctor comes); it can see that all families receive the benefits of home nursing, and it can prepare for future emergencies by making bandages and surgical dressings.

The Red Cross can also take interest in beautifying homes (as a campaign for cleanliness) and in seeing that constant communication is maintained between nisei soldiers and their families. A USO is needed here for visiting nisei soldiers and the Red Cross can cooperate in this function. This is only a partial list of duties which the Red Cross can assume.

Steps are now being taken to organize the local chapter and it is hoped that the Red Cross will receive 100 per cent support and cooperation from residents of the City.

HISTORY OF UTAH

By W. Richard Nelson
Religion on the American Frontier

The American frontier played a vital part in the history of religion, as it did in other problems of national importance. The early part of the nineteenth century witnessed a marked revival in religious interest in America. The first signs of the return of interest in religion was noticed in the East when church membership began to increase. From the time of the birth of the prophet Joseph Smith until he organized the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the majority of the older denominations doubled their membership, and new religions found converts very rapidly.

On the frontier, where religion had ever been more emotional than elsewhere in the United States, zealous men took advantage of the opportunities offered by this increased interest and devoted their efforts to win souls for God. Revival meetings were held. At these revivals, hundreds and sometimes thousands of people collected together in the woods, prepared to stay for days until the revival was over.

The western religious revivals--especially in Kentucky and the adjacent country--were characterized by numerous emotional and physical excesses. In the words of Frederic L. Paxson:

"Preachers set the frontier ablaze with the fire of religious enthusiasm and started revivals that spread far and wide from the scene--In August, 1801, at a camp meeting held in Caine Ridge in Kentucky, contemporary accounts relate that as many as 20,000 persons were in attendance."

The revivals in western New York held during the youth of Joseph Smith were not characterized by such excessive emotionalism as were those held in the South. Their most distinctive feature, however, was bitter contention between the ministers who were conducting the revivals over which church the converts should join.

But with this renewed interest in religion during the early part of the nineteenth century, thousands of people recognized that none of the existing churches were completely in harmony with the teachings of the Man of Galilee. Many of them openly claimed that an apostasy from the true Gospel had taken place. Therefore, in the hope of rectifying Christendom, strong preachers arose and founded new churches. Thirty new ones were established in America during the first half of the nineteenth century.

However, thousands of other people who had become disgusted with the existing Christian churches believed that if the true Gospel of Jesus Christ ever

Destined to play a dual role in the relocation program is the Agricultural division of Topaz. The first will be the all-important purpose of supplying the basic food needs of the City and ultimately of devoting a part of the farm program to producing crops vital to the conduct of war; the second, to act as a practical education and a training ground in preparing a large portion of the residents for their eventual relocation.

Head of this important division is Roscoe E. Bell, and assisting him are William C. Farrell, Farm Superintendent and head of the Agricultural Production section, and George N. Church, assistant Farm Superintendent. Bell, prior to his present position, was State representative for California of the Federal Bureau of Agricultural Economics at Berkeley. At the outset of the war, he served as vice-chairman of the California State War Board of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, also acting as regional research supervisor in the regional office of the Farm Security Administration at Portland, Ore. Obtaining his B.S., M.S., and agricultural training at Washington State College, he was, for the ensuing 8 years, instructor in Soils at Washington State College and assistant professor of Agronomy at the University of Idaho. Farrell was in the U.S. Soil Conservation Service at Albuquerque, New Mexico, and has had extensive farm management experience in many western states. Church has been a farmer in this locality for many years and has worked with the U.S. Engineers.

Playing an important part in this division is the Senior Agricultural Council, headed by Thomas R. Matsuoka, now on leave of absence due to illness. Acting Senior Counsellor is Sensuke Ura. Facilitating inter-division relationships, the Senior Council arranges employment of residents in this division, coordinates educational work and institutes training courses for farm workers in cooperation with the Education division. At present Acting Counselor Ura and Nobuo Takahashi are assisting the Employment division in the relocation of resident farmers on outside farms. Alden S. Adams, a member of the Education division, is the director of vocational agricultural education and is greatly assisting this division in giving training courses covering the various important phases of agriculture. Recently he has instituted the practice of taking high school students out for work training on the farm during half of every school day. The division personnel numbers approximately 200 residents, of whom about 150 commute daily to work on the farm.

CATTLE Kazuo Shikano and Hakaru Oda are the foremen of this section, with Shikano residing at the cattle headquarters in Section 3, located about 6 miles northeast of the City. This unit recently opened a field kitchen to serve hot lunches for approximately 50 commuting resident farmers. At the present time there are 179 head of cattle, 3 saddle horses, and 3 teams of draft horses at this section. Current work consists of riding the grazing range, maintaining watering places, feeding, branding and dehorning cattle, and repairing barbed wire fences.

SWINE: S. Sekiguchi and S. Sasajima are chairman and vice-chairman respectively of the swine association, with George Nemoto as secretary. There are 2 units of the swine section, one in Section 3 where the breeding, farrowing, and caring for suckling pigs are undertaken, and the other, in Section 15, where the newly purchased hogs are placed temporarily until they are vaccinated against various diseases. Present plans are to construct a central hog farm unit with a slaughter house, central farrowing houses, warehouses, and a number of pens. Also considered is the planting of corn to supplement the feeding of hogs.

POULTRY: Led by Chairman R. Yamane, Vice-chairman K. Kawahara, and Secretary Henry Omi, the poultry group has extensive plans for the production of eggs and for supplying the dining halls with chickens and turkeys. The three units now under construction are a brooder plant in Section 21, a farm for laying hens in Section 14, and a turkey farm in Section 28.

TRUCK CROPS: With the addition of a carload of farm equipment from the Gila Relocation Center, plowing and general field work of the truck crop section are progressing rapidly, and soon work on the seed beds will be started. At present there are four men investigating insecticide and fungicide requirements for this year. Leading members of this section are Chairman T. Kato, Vice-chairman T. Hase, and Secretary Vernon Ichisaka.

FOOTBALL: Due to the fact that the recently concluded elimination league did not give every team a chance to display its best talents and the fact that all the judges did not see every team in action, the following selection will not be called "All-star" as previously announced. Instead, in justice to all participants, the selection will be named "The Outstanding Players." The judges were Ted Iida, Warren Eijima, and the Commissary and fire department.

High School--Hisanori Sano, Ken Katayanagi, Kay Tanemachi, ends; Seiji Kaibe, G. Hashimoto, Kaz Kato, Bill Sakai, guards; Shuji Obayashi, Jiro Nakamura, centers; Sus Iwasa, Pete Keshima, Roy Harano, Harry Kitano, halfbacks; Sambo Nakaso, fullback.

Industrial League--Hank Yamashiro (fireman), Yuk Sano (commissary), ends; Effie Kawahara (commissary), Tad Tanaka (commissary), Shig Suzuki (fireman), John Oshida (Post Office), backs; Matsuzaki (fireman), guard.

BASKETBALL: An industrial league will be formed this Sunday, 11:30 AM, at Rec 34. All working departments interested in entering the league are requested to have representatives there on time.

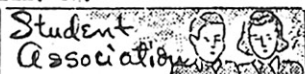

District 4 League--Beginning this Sunday afternoon at Block 35 court, 6

A native of North Dakota, recently appointed Chief Nurse Hannah Kringlen has years of nursing experience to her credit. Born in Hatton, North Dakota, Nurse Kringlen received her preliminary training at Grand Forks, N.D., where later she worked as floor supervisor of the hospital there.

Then followed a year as superintendent of nurses at a hospital at Hallock, Minn., 3½ years as superintendent at a hospital in Thief River Falls, Minn., and then finally before coming to Topaz, as the night supervisor of the St. Mary's Hospital at Reno, Nevada.

As to the hospital here, Miss Kringlen believes that it is, potentially, capable of becoming the equal of any outside. "It is well equipped and running very well under the circumstances," she says, "but there are too few doctors and too few registered nurses. If these shortages could be remedied, the Topaz Hospital would be one of the best."

Working under her at present are 5 Caucasian and 5 resident registered nurses. Of the resident staff, Mrs. Takahashi is in charge of public health, Mrs. Kitow in charge of the nurses' aides, Miss Mori heads the surgery section, and Helen and Leah Tokunaga are ward supervisors.

Due to limitation in space, only the found items will be published in this section. All lost articles should be reported to the Lost and Found department at Rec 11.

DEBUT

With this issue the weekly women's page takes a little curtesy. Its neophyte editor hopes to bring you some measure of enjoyment with style tips, hints for food and fun, and a career and school column among other things. Today we present veteran journalist Evelyn Kirimura, who offers hints on Japanese cookery to surprise and delight the hearts of men when they sit down to swill the brew.

Food Fables
EVELYN KIRIMURA
Minus the hectic rounds of city fads and fashions, every girl's desires in Topaz more or less center around food and how to prepare it with what is on hand. Other interests are still present, but what other subject is as universally dear to every heart, be it male or female, aged or infantile? Certainly not knitting or politics. One of our first considerations in home cookery is that gem of Topaz furnishings--the pot-bellied stove.

Necessarily, home cooking must be simple. One can't use up the entire block's quota of coal to dish up a savory roast a la Dutch oven.

For top-of-the-stove cookery, Mrs. J. Yanagizawa of 14-1-A suggests a noodle mixture. Either home-made or ready-made noodles may be used. In the case of the former, Mrs. Yanagisawa offers the recipe: mix $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups of flour and one egg (or water) and let stand all day until hard; roll flat and cut into strips. These noodles are added to a soup mixture which is made as follows: boil cubed fresh vegetables, add can of bouillon, allow to simmer 20 minutes. Boil soup and noodles another 15 minutes. If other noodles are used, boil before adding to the soup.

If the family stove is still rebellious, there is a pickle recipe offered by Mrs. S. Fujita of 12-9-E and guaranteed to endear the makers to their elders, and many a youth as well. A head of cabbage is necessary. Allow shredded cabbage to stand for 5 minutes in boiling water; run through cold water once, and drain; place with mixture of vinegar, salt and sugar in a covered jar. This mixture will last for a week. If longer keeping qualities are desired, bring syrup to a boil before adding cabbage.

.....to catch one, we mean---
A Wolf On the Loose.....eat well at mealtime, cut out in-between candy munching for a healthy skin and get your full quota of sleep. Clean hair counts, too.

And balance the see-saw between the about-town and stay-at-home gal, and remember Topaz is a small town. It's easier to keep a good rep than to retrieve a soiled one. Polonius said in "Hamlet," "To thine own self be true." Stick to your standards, be yourself, and we will place our bets on you.

And keep your voice soft and low, for to bear shrieking is sheer torture to him, a sure way to make brave men wince. (That goes for me, too.)

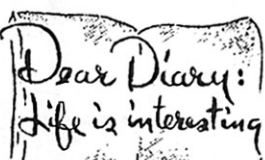

Learn to dance well and lightly on your own feet, for at a dance, popularity is in direct ratio to your dancing ability.

You may be healthy, a sharp hooper, but you're a no-go, a foul ball, if you're too dumb. So keep up your interest in the outside world by reading and with bull sessions. With statistical forecast reading five girls to every boy between sixteen and twenty left in Topaz this spring (work furloughs), we gals have just got to get going. Tain't easy. So next week I've got ideas on how to keep 'em in tow with fun and food at the house when they drop over.

CLOTH GIRAFFE

Decorative and amusing, this stuffed giraffe in percale is easily made for only the cost of $\frac{1}{2}$ yd. printed goods and cotton to fill his innards and limbs. He stands coily on bandy legs about a foot high. Pattern's for the asking from the Women's Editor. Next week: Panda. Gloves, hats, mittens, etc. will follow.

Only the mind has the power of reversing its gear on a journey, the only thing that can go "a la recherche dutemps perdu!" As one lives, there are certain to be many, many instances when the mind, in spite of everything, would retrace early steps in the mortal procession.

But the mind also fails; it will have forgotten details to link past fragments into a coherent picture. So it is evident that whoever keeps a transcript of such fragments, even on paper and nothing more, will be the quickest to call his mind to reconnoiteur.

Events even so recent as those in Topaz--everything vanishes into a permanent sunset as life goes sluggish-ly on.

So this, my diary, records the personal tales, odds and ends that add up to personal salutations to life in Topaz.

Always,
Tami

TRAINING OFFERED HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

In conjunction with the high school vocational training program, the Project Agricultural division is offering an opportunity for 12 secondary school boys to work Saturdays regularly on light farm work consisting of fence construction, care of hogs and poultry, or assisting in the building of feeding troughs, mangers and shelters.

Only boys recommended by the school vocational agriculture department are to be enlisted. Students interested should consult LeGrand Noble, principal of the high school, it was announced by the Agricultural division.

INSTRUCTORS ADDED TO SCHOOLS

Augmenting the present personnel, four nisei residents were attached to the Topaz City High School faculty during the last three weeks, it was reported. They are the following: Tane Amemiya, physical education; John Iwatsu, mechanical drawing; Katsunori Handa, cabinet making; and Minoru Yoshida, mathematics.

Instructors Eiko Hosoi, mathematics, and Juichi Kaino, cabinet making, resigned from the teaching staff.

New instructors in the elementary schools are Miss Minnie L. Schultz of Blackfoot, Idaho, low 5th; and Mrs. Mildred A. Leese, wife of Lt. Leese of the Topaz military police, who is teaching the low 6th grade.

TOYS FOR CHILDREN AVAILABLE

That parents may borrow a supply of toys for a period of approximately two weeks to be used by children at home was revealed by the Pre-School department as its current project.

Lending headquarters of the service, which will commence Monday, will be at Rec 13 between 2 and 4 P.M. from Monday through Friday.

Among the toys available are: tinker toys, blocks, pull toys, crayons, scissors, puzzles, stuffed animals, dolls, clay, marbles, picture books and wooden beads.

HOLD TEST CASE DISCUSSION

Under the auspices of the Adult Education department, a discussion on the Minoru Yasui case in Portland, Oregon, will be held Wednesday evening at DH 36 from 7:30 P.M. James Nishimura will be chairman.

With Ichiro Akiya presenting the nisei viewpoint, Ben Horozumi will introduce all the aspects of the case.

All nisei are especially invited to attend the discussion, which is a phase of the Current Events series sponsored by the Adult Education section.

PARENTS' DAY ACCLAIMED A SUCCESS

With more than 460 parents responding to the roll call in classes of their children, who remained at home, "Parents Day" at Topaz City High School last Friday was acclaimed a success by LeGrand Noble, principal.

In adhering to the regular schedule of their children, the parents were directed by student guides to the classrooms in which they spent 20-minute sessions. Instructors presented a brief outline of the course of study pursued in their classes.

Approximately 600 parents, teachers, and administrative personnel attended the luncheon, which terminated the day's program, in DH 32 at 1 P.M. The speakers were Project Director Charles F. Ernst and Lorne W. Bell, chief of the Community Services division.

Principal Noble declared that the occasion demonstrated positive means of developing parent-teacher relationships.

STUDENTS VISIT HOG RANCH

Demonstrations in the recognition of livestock breeds and qualities were made by Alden S. Adams, agricultural instructor, to a group of 36 upper-class high school students during a field trip of the vocational agriculture class made yesterday afternoon to the Project hog ranch located about 2 miles north of the City.

ADULT CLASS MAKES FIELD TRIP

Cognizant of the need for a practical study of agricultural problems, the adult education classes in poultry and livestock recently made a field trip to the Project poultry, hog and cattle ranches.

Accompanied by instructors Alden S. Adams and W. Richard Nelson, 30 students inspected the farm units and investigated hog and cattle feeding, poultry diseases and livestock broods.

FACULTY PRESENTS DRAMA

With "The Ride Of Dan McGrum", the faculty's hilarious dramatic presentation, starred on the program, the third student assembly of the Topaz City High School was held yesterday in two shifts, under the chairmanship of Grace Manabe.

The all-male faculty cast consisted of Leon Westover, Robert Maggiora, Sunner E. Hale, W. Richard Nelson, D. Elmer Johnson, and George L. Lewis, narrator.

Other participants included May Iha, Amy Dei and Eiko Otogiri, tap dance; Alice Mori, reading; and Lily Ann Harada, piano numbers.

Mich Hayashida interpreted procedures of next week's student election campaign.

APOSTLE WIDSTOE VISITS CITY

Apostle John A. Widstoe of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City, who was in the City last Saturday, attended the initial official meeting of the Topaz branch of the LDS church here at the home of Claude C. Cornwall, chief of Employment.

Present at the assembly were Project Director Charles F. Ernst, President Harold R. Morris of the Deseret Stake, Rulon T. Hinckley of Hinckley, Ward Moody of Delta, and leaders of the Topaz Inter-Faith association.

Dr. Widstoe, formerly president of the State university and the Utah State Agricultural College, is noted for his original studies in the field of agricultural research. He reported that he had conducted soil tests of the area now occupied by the Topaz project a few years ago to determine the adaptability of suitable crops.

With Father Stoecke in San Francisco on important business, the Topaz Catholic Church announced that there will be no mass worship Sunday morning.

Father Stoecke is expected to return to the City next week.

TRUE HAPPINESS

By Rev. S. Sanada

Many of us yearn for the happiness which is based on the highest pleasurable gratification and satisfaction attendant on individual welfare. But if we seek such a happiness that does not emanate from the heart, we will never discover it. As I see it, the rich blessings within us is true happiness.

Topaz Public Library

NOTES

DONATIONS: Highlight of this week's donations was $3 from "A Student--to be used for magazine subscriptions." Other donors of books and magazines were: R.G. Wendell, Ames, Iowa; Anna Mills, Smith College, Massachusetts; and Bob Akamatsu, Charles F. Ernst, Margaret Tsuda, Adrian Altwater, Mr. Murota and the Pre-school Department of Topaz.

MAGAZINES: With the arrival of cards, the magazines on the shelves will be allowed to circulate for one week. Fines of 1¢ per day overdue will be charged.

STAFF: Two members of the staff left Topaz this week: Margaret Tsuda to visit relatives and George Goto to attend the University of Utah.

LIBRARY COUNCIL: By request, the Libraries of Topaz formed a Library Council to meet regularly on Mondays from 2 to 3 PM at 32-9-A, under the chairmanship of Ora Bills, high school librarian. Represented are the public library, the high school and elementary school libraries. Interested organizations are invited to send representatives to join in the discussion of library problems.

CONCERT

The melodies of Franz Schubert will be heard at the January 20th Concert at the library from 8 to 9 PM. The program will open with Marche Militaire and Serenade, with Marian Anderson singing Ave Maria and Aufenthalt, and will end with Schubert's Unfinished Symphony - No. 8 in B Minor.

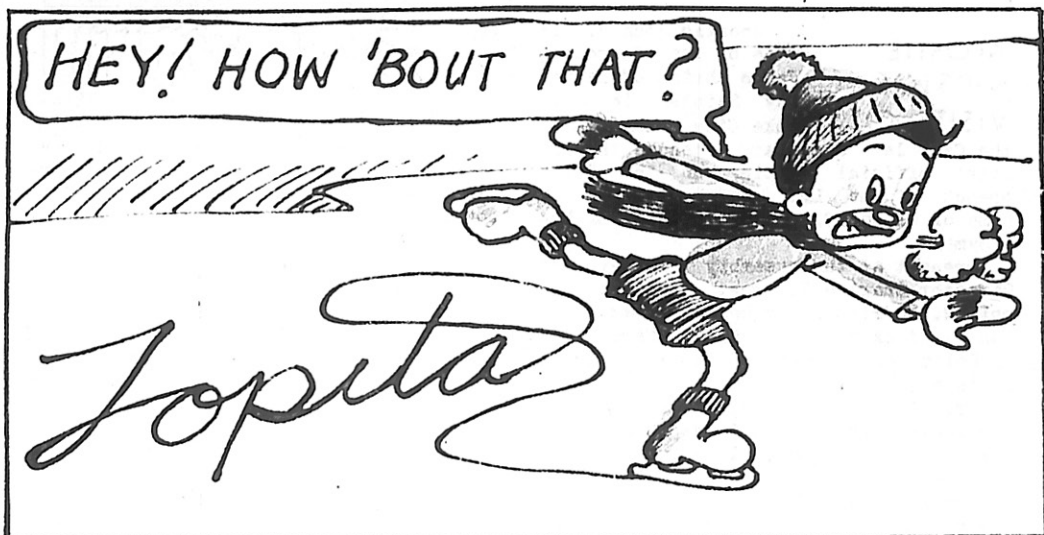

NEW BOOKS

The first book order made possible from fines and the rental collection have come. The first purchase includes: Ambassador Grew's REPORT FROM TOKYO, Stefan Heym's HOSTAGES, Robert Standish's THREE BAMBOOS, Hugh Walpole's KILLER AND THE SLAIN, Gertrude Diamant's DAYS OF OFELIA, Hartzell Spence's GET THEE BEHIND ME, Corporal Hargrove's SEE HERE PRIVATE HARGROVE, and THIS IS MY BEST edited by Whit Burnett.

LOAN

On loan from the Salt Lake County Library are not quite a thousand new books to be placed in the libraries for circulation. Arrangements with Mrs. Ruth Tyler, County Librarian, were made by Miss Wanda Robertson.

Of this number, 338 will be placed in the public library, and include many new and best-sellers, mysteries and westerns. A card catalogue will be available and reserves may be placed.
