

C- "WAR" Yosh Tamura

We would have a different meaning to everyone ~~it~~ ^{small} doing with a another cup of coffee and ~~buy~~ ^{buy} ~~war bond~~ ^{war bond} every month. ~~percentage of one dollar~~ ^{the} ~~uncertainty~~ ^{uncertainty} of a ~~tumbling~~ ^{tumbling}, whistling bomb that may send a city up in flame and smoke.

Being one of the many thousands in the relocation centers it has a another meaning to me. Since Pearl Harbor ~~we~~ ^{we} have had to prepare for a ~~different~~ ^{entirely} different kind of life, adopting ourselves to a life inside a designated area. Now more than a year has elapsed. ~~aside~~ ^{aside} this situation we have to look at a Post War life. Our homes sold, we have nothing ^{to} represent us ~~that~~ ^{that} which we brought with us. ~~It~~ ^{It} ~~has~~ ^{has} ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~read~~ ^{read} in the public Press the Public sentiment toward Japanese Am. Citizens, we make our decision for future homes.

what more tribute could one pay to a brother or a father in the armed service, who at any moment may be called for duty overseas.

so that we in the relocation camp, (the future generation), may live happily for this land,
the only home they know.

In conclusion I would like to say that this war has brought many thinking and lets hope this unpleasant lesson will be the last.
