Jan 3 - 1943

We are pretty well settled by this time this is my 3rd message. 1st Telegraph to Yasumura & 2nd a letter

Did you all had a happy New year? no doubt more or less lonesome one.

Did you write to Frank Iseri. Hapato about his Fathers death? I heard that he died that night. How is Mr H. Iseri is getting along and is Shigesoshi still at home?

no Rain here they say its ^{too} cold to Rain when cloudy it snows every morning its about 10 to 15 degrees below zero

We have nothing to do but cleaning up and washing ^{than we} 1st came in Seattle we had a hard time for shaving and hair cut but later officers allowed to gave us safety razor so got along very nicely A Party from Tacoma sent Rice cake so we had a piece of each size of a middle size taste of New year spirit 40 of us in 1 camp about 8 minutes walk to where we go to eat in the morning sure is could. Fast Ricard Stamps yesterday, that Tom mentioned when I was in Seattle How is weather down there ^{they say} they are 3800 feet above sea level ~~here~~. All working but snow all around here. He only eat 2 times on Sunday 3 times in week days on account of changing weather can't sleep good and have touch of sore throat again

He now have our style Bath tub. so he get nice and warm before he go to bed

He are getting along very nicely everybody is very kind to one another

Will write again don't work too hard give my regards to all How is our Rhubarb coming. take care of William, Carl, Ahis.
