Monday nite

Darling.

Back again to the same adobe of three nites ago.

The hours of travel was fine except for slight congestion at Penn Station - 5-6 PM rush hour.

My companion was a perfect gentleman of 4 years - coming home with his father and mother from a vacation in Maine.

Tuesday Morning

Honey, I was rather tired and befuddled so went to bed.

Got up and found that the acceptance of surrender was made to Louis govt. I guess we are all pretty happy about it. I would be if I hadn't had to scramble around for a job now.

which I'm going to do in a few minutes

Bye now honey.

adoring love.
Dick

Everyone here is fine.
