Sunday Note

Darling.

Just got back from the round trip to N. Y. &c. Dumped off a package to Sam and a package for Kay Aka. Inquired at P. O. for private mailing to Japan but so far there is none.

Honey. it was swell to talk to you. Your voice always sounds so grand to hear. Maybe someday we'll get a recording of it but still I do not believe that it would sound the same as if it were talking to me.

Just about 10 days more and darling, you'll be with me for kups. It ~~is~~ ^{was} a long wait but it was endurable because we were able to get together several times. I think we have to have a second honeymoon, ne?

Somehow, I've gotten used to my customers. Or perhaps they've become used to me. We don't quarrel and becher so much. Maybe I drove away all the bargain hunters. The past week was quite nice except that I'm not making any money for the store.

Was even offered a mgr. job in one of the coop store located in White Plains. Too far and no pay.

Baby. There's a lot to do when you get down here. First of all. I have to do a lot of loving and second of all - some more loving.

Darling. I love you and want you always.

Please do not bring anything from upstairs. Darling. We want to get things for our new home which are filled with sunshine.

Love always,
Dick
