Teachers will note in their own way such records of scholarship as they believe will be helpful in encouraging pupils to do their best. This record may be in words or in the use of E—Excellent, G—Good, P—Poor.

PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM FOR PARENTS

1. Parents are urged to visit schools and thus impress pupils with their interest in the schools.

2. Prompt and continuous attendance is required by law. This is for the good of the State. It is good citizenship to comply.

3. Absence even for a day decreases the financial support of the schools and lessens the educational opportunities of the children both for those absent and those present.

4. The parent's interest in this card and the signing of it helps in impressing upon the pupil the importance of doing good work.

FRED M. HUNTER,
Superintendent of Schools.
