REFLECTIONS

August 1-3, 2003 was the celebration of Minidoka Remembered 2003. Minidokans, their family and friends from throughout the United States and Japan attended the 3-day event. More than 1,000 persons viewed the exhibits, archives and artifacts depicting life in Minidoka during the years of internment (1942-1945).

The presentations and workshops were well attended, many to standing room only crowds. People learned of the loss of human dignity, sacrifices, and disintegration of the family as a result of Executive Order 9066. We were reminded of how GAMAN and SHIKATA GA NAI were an integral part of the survival of the courageous Nikkei imprisoned behind barbed wire.

Minidoka, today, has been declared a national monument. Information was shared and focus groups discussed what should be included in the Minidoka National Park Monument.

The banquet was attended by over 800 persons. There were many door prizes donated by the Seattle community. The speeches ranged in topics from the experiences of the Issei; memories of childhood from the eyes of a Nikkei and from the son of a Caucasian minister (who was a powerful advocate of the Japanese); children's books influenced by camp life and the 442nd military combat unit. An odori was also performed as a reminder of our Japanese heritage. The centerpieces, etched with the Nikkei logo were surrounded by sand, tumbleweed, and rocks collected from Minidoka and the handmade barbed wire were symbolic reminders of the environment of Minidoka. The hand painted Daruma, on the zabuton and background screen, reminded us of the tenacious spirit of the Nikkei.

The picnic was held at Carkeek Park. What a beautiful day with the spectacular view of Puget Sound. The picnic was a relaxing way to share the last day of Minidoka Remembered 2003 with friends, old and new. Oishi bento, otsukemono, ocha and dessert were served. What a treat!

The joy of so many Minidokans becoming reacquainted with friends, many after 60 years, was so heartwarming. The warmth displayed in their renewal of friendship was truly emotional. Laughter and embraces filled the 3-day event. The KIMOCHI of Minidoka Remembered 2003 was truly achieved - To honor our older Nikkei who survived life in the Minidoka Concentration Camp and to learn about that missing part of our Japanese American Heritage for the younger Nikkei and future generations.

We were reminded that, as Americans, we must not allow Executive Order 9066 to happen again under the guise of national security. We must support the Arab-Americans and Muslims who are today the target of racial hysteria. Because we remember!

We do hope you enjoy the many candid photos taken during Minidoka Remembered 2003 and the precious memories will be with you forever.

Arigatoo gozaimasu for contributing to the success!

HUNT
EXCLUDED FROM THEIR WEST COAST HOMES BY MILITARY AUTHORITIES, MORE THAN 9000 JAPANESE AMERICANS OCCUPIED HUNT RELOCATION CAMP 4 MI NORTH OF HERE BETWEEN 1942 & 1945.
Until they could resettle in other places, they lived in wartime tarpaper barracks in a dusty desert, where they helped meet a local farm labor crisis, planting and harvesting crops. Finally, a 1945 Supreme Court decision held that United States citizens no longer could be confined that way, and their camp became Idaho's largest ghost town.
