

Oregon Farmers Ask Nisei Deportation

GRESHAM, Or., Feb. 10.—(AP)—

A mass meeting of 1,000 residents of this farming region last night demanded that persons of Japanese ancestry be deported.

The resolution was adopted at a meeting called by the Oregon Property Owner's Protective Association after speakers said Japanese moving to the United States, or born here, are characteristically of dual citizenship to the sixth generation.