

First Tacoma Japs Leave for South

TACOMA, May 18.—(AP)—The first contingent of Japanese to be evacuated from this city rolled out of the Union Station by train yesterday afternoon for Pinedale, Calif. The train carried 418 evacuees and a baggage car full of personal luggage.

The remaining Japanese, estimated at about 450, were scheduled to leave late today, for the same destination.