

Sardie Saito
Barrack 7 Unit 6 2nd fl.
Santa Anita Center
Arcadia, California.

Miss Holly Gilson
3039 Boulder St.
Los Angeles, California

June 3, 1942

Dear Holly,

Gee! I really agree with you. "You're so weak and evil." I thought that maybe you didn't get my letter because it was so small. I was listening to the radio one day and, I heard that song "You're so weak and evil" also "He -- h -- lo baby" You know the rest?

A school opened and this ~~was~~ program.

9-10 A.M. Geometry Mr. Ito

10-11 A.M. Amer. History Fukuyama

1-2 P.M. Fine Art Tomi Okamoto - worked at Walt Disney's

2-3 P.M. Health Education

3-4 P.M. Chemistry Dr. Mizaki a Ph.D. Professor from Stanford. Because

Now, I'll tell you what happened today. The school closed because the teachers were drafted into working as camouflage workers. They have a big project here. It's carp making camouflage nets for the army. Kids that are sixteen and over (including me) are being drafted to work ~~as~~ in the kitchens or as a camouflage workers. What? They could go somewhere if they think I'm going to work in that hot sun and break my backs.

What do they think we are anyway?
Oh well, I'm not going to school now.
(They're sure anxious to keep us dumb
just like morons. Golly! All my plans of going to college and all that are all gone. All I could think of now is be a dumb ox and not even graduate high school.

The food is getting better now (it's about time!) You know what happened?
The other <sup>day</sup> District VI and VII all got diarrhea. 4:00 A.M. They were all racing to the  $\sim \sim 4^{\prime\prime}$ 's. Man, it looked as if the whole camp got sick with the food.
They ran out of toilet paper too, right in the middle of the night, Boy? Were the  $\sim \sim 4^{\prime\prime}$ 's crowded and did it smell?
Woo P.U.! Those guards thought there was going to be a revolution and the fence was all lined up with machine

guess.

I always get diarrhea with the food they serve here too.

I guess you're ~~in~~ the sugar rationing problem now. Hell! We are too. We don't get sugar on the table sometimes.

By the way, if you get ~~litter~~ <sup>letter</sup> Bader's address, please tell her to write to me.

Bog! ~~The~~ They <sup>they're</sup> getting strict here too! They don't even let you bring a bar of candy in the camp. The soldiers take it away. When someone comes to visit you at the gate you have to talk real loud because they don't let you get close to them. The soldiers walk right in between you too. You say a couple words and then ~~the~~ soldier walks by. You friend says a few words and a soldier passes by again. Folly? They sure think we're prisoners of war.

Oh well, let's forget it all. I'll be closing 'cause my hands getting too tired to write.

P.S. Enclosing our camp paper. No, ~~#~~ I don't think I better because I sent you one already and anyway it makes my

