I gave a homeless guy who went "A Dollar? Take a picture of me for a Dollar?" And then he stood Real close & said "give me 5 Dollars or I'll Push you over & take it" I Had Been strictly no "No" and "no thank you" But it was windy & it's light so I pulled whatever cash I had in my pocket out & he saw a 10 & said "A Fan would be great" And so I gave him a 10. Later I passed a woman who was very petite & had two kids & said "Please me & my kids are homeless (not that normally she" But all I had left was 3 Dollars so I gave her that & Apologized And went the other way on the Bus. I meant to go to the LA Art Musco which is nice too.

I got on the Purple subway line earlier in the Day — It was so strange.

TO the girl who glared at me on your way out: I thought you were this girl I had a Dance class w/ Ali — I didn't mean to stare But I was trying to Remember & Ali's name of course it was you. It wasn't. You were scared facing me in the end of the train (I was facing Backwards) so when I looked Forward all I saw was you. I think Ali is ~~was~~ one of the top most Beautiful women I have ever met mostly Because of her Attitude? In Dance class that's what drove me crazy By She was so sure of herself & I was so tense. Anyway You have similar Birth & similar ways of Moving. I ~~Honestly~~ Didn't mean to stare - I know how fraught the metro is her woman so I tried to just look at the cityscape as much as possible But there nothing out there but my obv attraction was probably not helping my eye kept being drawn over Because your corner because it was directly the most visual of honestly part of the train car— your pants kept almost taking her sweater off!

she wasn't wearing a shirt? it seemed there was something wrong with her left shoulder — the whole situation just made me very nervous. I sat there because it was the only available spot but I really didn't want to make you nervous or uncomfortable & when you left — made my guess and gave me a look like "what are you looking at" about this.
I started to chase you out & explain BUT that would have made it worse.

Tonight I saw a white man, with clean Brown Loafers & ~~a~~ A Trojans sweat shirt & a Tidy, Polite Haircut carrying Free & Ready A Sword

When Questioned he said he was on his way to Knight some men in a loo yo ~~Fantasy Fantastic~~ Christian Fight was order called like the Trojans? The Trojan order? He had no Scabbard & was Carrying the Sword at the Ready. It was crazy. He was happy, the crossed the street with OSC when the Light changed

Nothin' like walking up in the middle of the night & looking in the mirror & thinking about how much you ~~Don't~~ look like yourself!

There is nothing more interesting to the psychotic and fragile mind than someone else's Diary. ~~That is nothing I would Have love most~~ You can Bask in the intrigue & drama of a life totally unrelated to your own while also drawing parallels to the situations of your own life & Feeling Superior That you handled That issue or it so much better, or you at least know how to spell the word "Superior" correctly. I myself would find anything to Read the Diary of my younger Self and Burn it in unmediated Blue & white, what exactly was going on with that Girl at that Horny Fuck at

at any other of the usual at what I'm doing now which is trying to get comfortable in a shed like I am spending the night and trying to convince myself that the man in the mirror, despite his total lack of resemblance to myself, is not capable of breaking through the glass and attacking me. It has never happened before and I believe it never will for that man is a coward.

Unfortunately for posterity, I lived in constant fear that my thoughts were dangerous or otherwise salacious (perverted) and if I ever thought this too hastily could be transcribed and published, causing me no end of the worst of all the punishments — public humiliation.

of course now that I am an adult and a writer I wish I had done fewer illustrations of zeppelins at at least one Bionicle slaughter (or Animorphs or Lego Island or Chessmaster). I did keep, for a time, a ~~Detailed~~ log where I would at night (during my brief flirtation w ~~Puritanity~~ Christianity) write down bed. The problem is that I can't find it anymore. A typical entry would have looked like this:

woke up
ate breakfast played Legos
ate lunch
played Legos
watched TV
ate dinner
watched a movie prayed wrote in log

and then either that night or the next morn
I would add went to sleep.

after awhile the monotony of my days & the forceful power of the compulsion to fulfill this project (that I set myself) got to be too much for me and I drew an illustration of myself being tied to a rocket ship, crying, as it propelled me towards adulthood. It was a real cartoon vibe. I remember sitting up in bed (I had a bunk bed situation where I was a dad) trying to my mom whose head came about level to my bunk. I wonder where those composition notebooks got to — I used to have ~~a whole stack of~~ three major ones. A short bike a magic treehouse story, never finished, a book of writings, and the log.

I want to teach a film class. I think I would be good. What is film? I would say film is about story way more than it is about aesthetic. But a lot of white boys think that the formula is inverted and that they shouldn't be in this new, feminist world. This is important, I think. Become strong writers. Interrogate your assumptions, craft a solid narrative & ask for help and in this class it will be given, I'll say.

I've been trying to blog today — Jonah sent me the last VP magazine - v.4. It has a bunch of my photos I took for the club & I'm listed in the back as "staff photographer extraordinaire" which I'm pretty ~~chuf~~ pleased w/. Jonah and I had a pally out for- gos (I'm not like a Likerthe. Before I left for Italy - he left me behind Downtown. It was the night of Dirty Discourse & it was when I found out Rachel Saul was pregnant — and she's such a birthed the child so it was like a year! I went to Italy & Rachel became a mother. Anyway I barely made it home - my knee died ~~a little~~ but not before I managed an uber — let (was pretty pissed. ☺ told me to tch him my mom's

I'd not after go Downtown - it's like a whole other world I don't know anyone. ~~We~~ Amy told us all about a Dilettante or the PTA - a hot bed of drama and vice - Brittany. I ~~don't~~ have never met her But we all agreed that we hate her Because she shoplifted & my Hanna & I waited in the cold for the parade to start - we thought 4:30. Then 6. Then 7. But ~~it didn't~~ after a bit it investigation we discovered it starts at 8.2000! far too late for a parade. Mom & Dad are off buying a car so we are downtown alone. Kind of like when Jonah abandoned me - But I have company and a phone battery. we had utterly tasteless tacos then a treat that said "Have a Ball" and I realised too late sold "mountain oysters" (Bull testicles) But I don't think that's what the tacos were made of. Funny when we request and to the DMV we headed and to Costco - which were good But as we walked in a woman was arguing with her family - it was Birthday, Always remember!

DAVID LYNCH seems to have the same thoughts as me - is he ok?

Satirgrical character: David Lynch

on playing the villain

I am often surprised at how kind and nice the actors who characters typically play villains are. You want to think that B.H. (for example) is just as awful at home but he's actually a fine comedian and good-natured family man. a basic aspect

& Being Biff Tannen is That Biff is a villain. If you acted like that in real life & were called on to play a part where you were the bully - it would take an inhuman amount of un-self-reflexivity to not see that you are the villain. The point of the Biff character is 'Don't be like Biff'. So villains are often played by spooky-looking but kind people. A bigger problem is the

"idiosyncratic character actor" like Johnny Depp or Dustin Hoffman or Woody Allen. B/c they play someone who works & likes 'outside the norm' & is rewarded for it. I worry David Lynch is like this. Anyway J. Depp always plays a hero, & is therefore given more leeway in what is acceptable. His strangeness is rewarded - and in real life he acts like his characters (After all, why not they're good & Pple expect it anyway) & this either leads to or exacerbates problems. J. Depp the man has. like sex crimes. B/c he's a good guy he can do whatever he likes - after all he couldn't do it if it wasn't good b/c he's the hero!

my most shameful memory is of living in Texas as a young boy. I had long hair and was quite proud of it - to the chagrin of the locals. my closest friend was another boy who also had unusually long hair - call him Kenny for his name is lost to the harbages of time - we had moved to Texas for my Father's work and had settled near the sea - but no where nice. at this same time the Columbine massacre happens and I remember clearly wanting up into some man's face and BB saying "I don't go to school, school is where they shoot you. I was serious and firm in my conviction that the State had organized a system that we had all been brought into for the purpose of exterminating children - I have never been 100% tied to Reality. The man was quite shocked.

But the clearest memory of that time I have is arguing with my friend "Kenny" in tongues but can't go shopping. She (Her TO? wants no sister at this time. I had my Barbies. Kenny wanted her to get in her car & go shopping but I really wanted her to have sex with her. She was already naked and she was my toy. so the individual choices that her character made were very important to me. ~~the~~ I am not sure why it was so important to me that Barbie have sex. But I was about 5 and I had gotten it into my head this is a thing that people who have control over their lives find important. And I couldn't think of anyone with more agency than Barbie, except maybe Xena, the warrior princess. And it was my doll.

In our struggle we beheaded the doll. I can still remember the reeling in my stomach as I looked upon what my greed and selfishness had wrought. For context I never hurt, destroyed, or mutilated my toys in any way. I considered toy stores a sacred text. There were many nights when I would look my toys in the eye and tell them their fate and that I loved them, but sorry we couldn't keep them. And now this Barbie toy, who I had been entrusted was in my hands.

Now, I was 5 when this story happened, and as a three year old I just did not have the upper body strength to pop this doll's head back on. The only other person in the house was my mom who was in the living room of this single story home. Kenny and I had kept our argument and fight private, even as children we understood the sensitive nature of this material. As the more adult of the two of us, I was decided as the emissary to the living room.

The doll was still naked. So if there were to be any fallout or questions I was totally unprepared for them. I decided not to lie. Because I cannot lie. But also not to invite too much investigation or reveal anything unwarranted. Look as normal but also a little reserved. It was very important to me that my mom not find out that I was playing at sex. I didn't want her to think of me like that, so crude.

I took the toy down the short hallway to where my mom was sitting, and I have such a clear picture of the scene, I can see exactly where she was sitting. Because the stress of it all flooded my tiny body with Adrenalin and heightened all my senses. This is the first time I can remember this happening. Where the memory takes over. And it's as if I am outside my body and a better cooler head takes charge. This happens all the time now. When I become overwhelmed with emotion it's as if all the blood empties out the bottom of my shoes and the emotion bubbles up and overtakes me. Anger, or drunk or terrible sadness. Or anxiety like giving a speech or meeting my partners parents for the first time. I can remember all this more-or-less now.

how society works how we score players out. But in this purple state I can never remember the things that I say.

So I hold up the doll in her three component parts and I say nothing. And she says "How did this happen" and I believe, in deception of all deceptions, I simply shrug. And she hands the doll back to me, one more whole, and I walk up exit so she does not hear the mad beating of my heart or the sheer audacity of the crime that I have gotten away with.

A german man ~~A~~ infiltrates
A small english island —
A woman pretends to be english schoolteacher. She Does not want to be tied Down!
She is ~~a~~ ambitious But tech he superior — Doesn't want to F the Man or the english Trenchcoat They ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ get all Their info Rd?
No wait She Does like the english traitor.

Her cover includes an english pastor She's egged to the Tied Him up. She likes the Trenchcoat. Oh my god
She's a Double agent.
She's not the Real Hadrian??

a very good TWIST. ~~of the~~ ~~Billy Dee~~ I was wondering how they were going to catch up in. But he's free - so he has a chance. I'm kinda rooting for this german spy.

This film could be called "The Three Ms. ~~Barnetts~~"

1. original
2. german (replaced)
3. english (Double agent)

one is the Real Spy.

"But you must!"
"I am no longer under your orders"

~~Blackmail~~ The "turncoat" — ~~of~~ his wife! Ms. ~~Barnett~~ is his wife!

Oh gee whiz Mister
I Didn't Mean it — Can
I Have my ball Back?

6/Jan/2018 That was my big career aspiration was to be Aspiration - To be An Inventor. My idea ~~was~~ was That I, An autistic And math-illiterate Homeschooled Child was going to ~~Robot~~ Revolutionize the world with my inventions. The ones I ~~can~~ can remember were A machine that makes Lego-made of Lego, And A Shrink Ray. I had no Idea of the mechanics But I had a solid on the log.

"That was A very strange thing for A child to have done, But you weren't really like A child, you were like Jake."

design. My Idea of the Profession of 'Inventor' came entirely from the film "Back to the Future" and the character Doc Brown, whose Profession in the film is actually - technically. ~~Ill~~ Illiterate was well-on Disney chairs in Disneyland "You were more willing to forgive them for being scary if you knew there was a Rule they were following" it was just a man in a suit But they couldn't take their heads off to show you it's a man under there — But you were more okay with it if I told you it was the Rules of Disneyland. which is true."

—Mom

~~In the Film~~ In the film Brown's family is actually super rich And the whole Beer Cleaning Scavenging their fortune making useless shit Happy Something works out — And in that respect I've Actually Accomplished that Quite Handily. I tell people I'm a filmmaker

How to Use TENUGUI

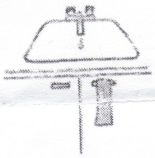

There are no rules in the way of using TENUGUI.
TENUGUI can be used in a variety of ways as described below:

As a wiping tool

TENUGUI can be used as a wiping tool for a variety of things. On a rainy day it will wipe raindrops from your clothing. In summer it will wipe sweat from your face. It can also be used for wiping your eye-glasses and of cause after you wash your hands.

In the kitchen

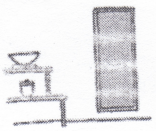

In the kitchen there are used many things made of cloth like dishcloths. You can use TENUGUI every day and keep it clean, because it will dry easily.
*Since TENUGUI will lose its colors, use TENUGUI of light colors.

For Wrapping

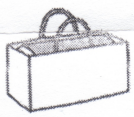

TENUGUI will come in handy if you take it with you in your bag. You can use it for wrapping up a book you have borrowed from a friend of yours, or for packing up the fruit someone has given you for a gift or for wrapping up other things you are going to send to someone as a gift. You will be happy to receive a gift wrapped up in something that can also be used later.

Interior decoration

TENUGUI can also be used as upholstery. You can use TENUGUI under a flower vase or a knick-knack, or how would you like to enjoy the view of each season in your room by using TENUGUI?

For covering

There is no problem if your bag has no top or cover. TENUGUI can be a cover of your bag. You can also use it to cover an open shelf.

Hospitality

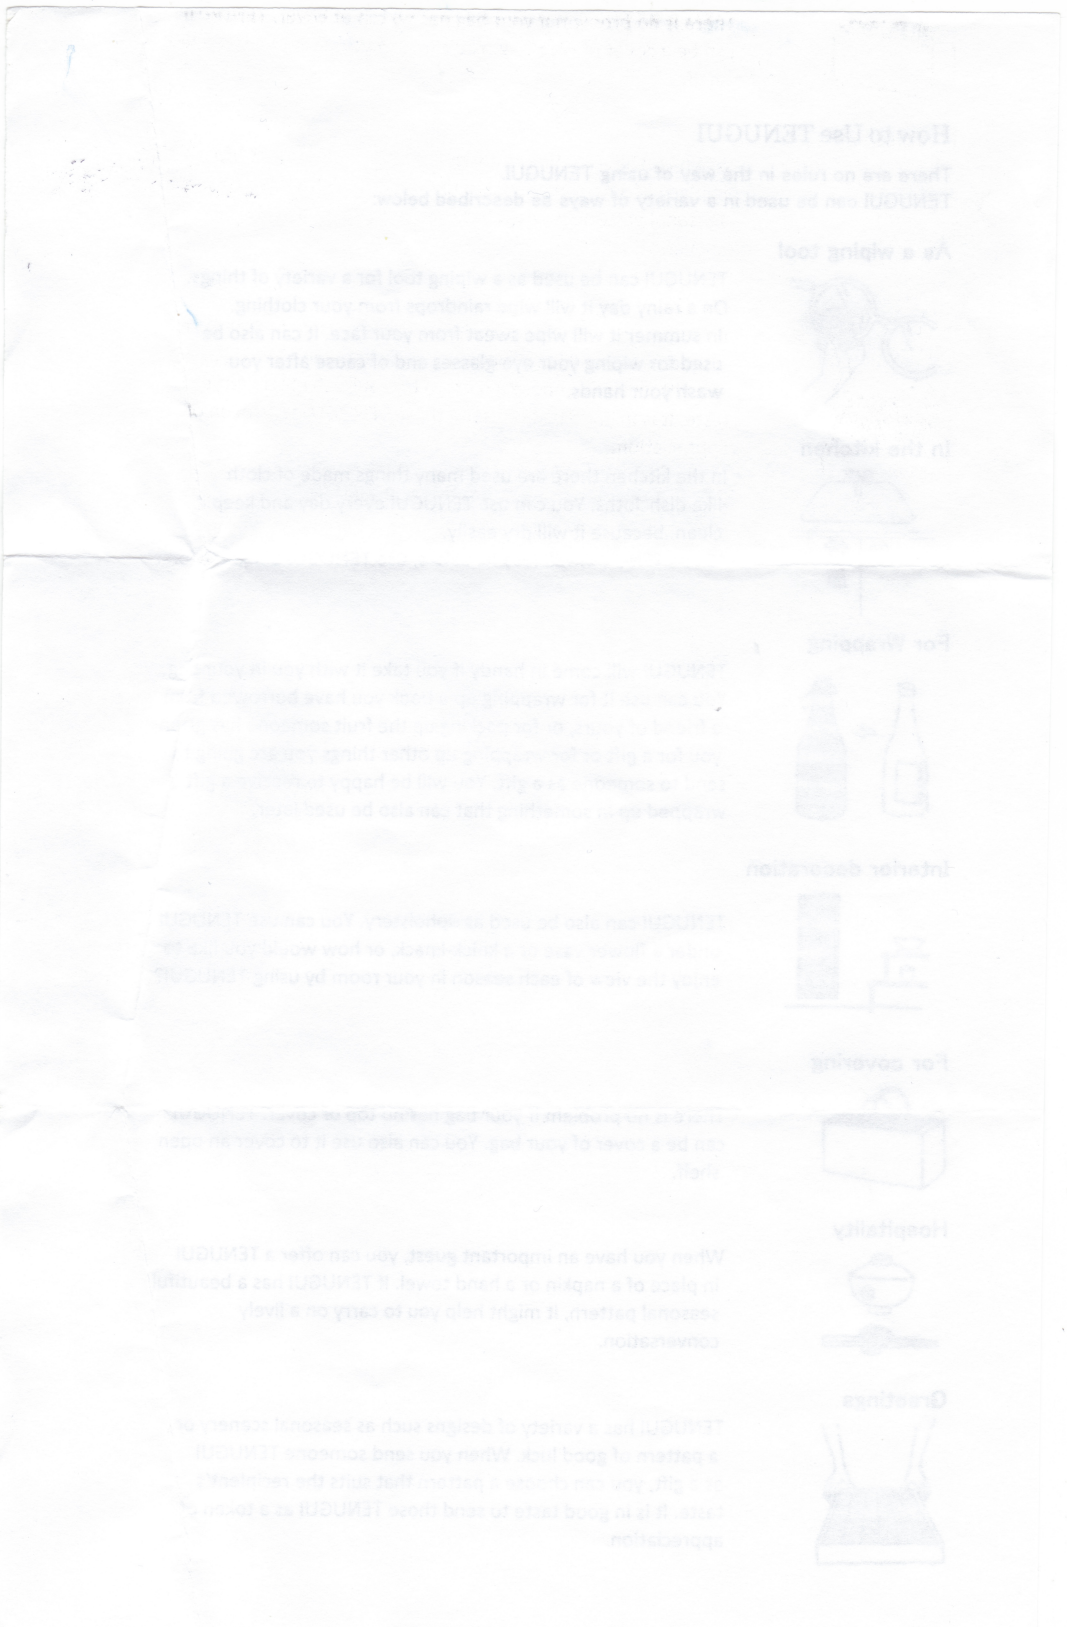

When you have an important guest, you can offer a TENUGUI in place of a napkin or a hand towel. If TENUGUI has a beautiful seasonal pattern, it might help you to carry on a lively conversation.

Greetings

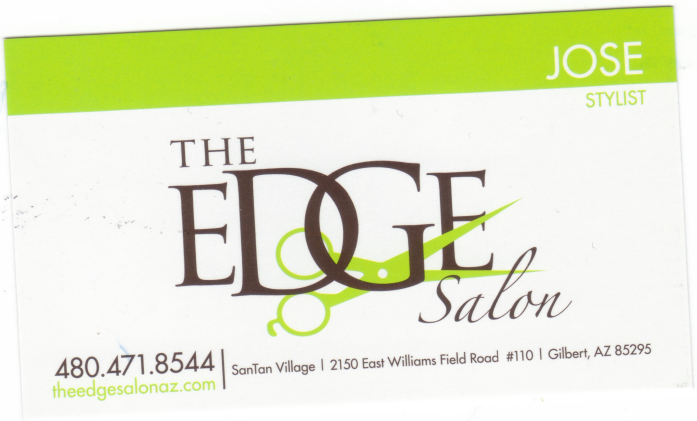

TENUGUI has a variety of designs such as seasonal scenery or a pattern of good luck. When you send someone TENUGUI as a gift, you can choose a pattern that suits the recipient's taste. It is in good taste to send those TENUGUI as a token of appreciation.
