

RAISE YOUR HAND IF

Sometimes we all just need a great laughter-launcher.

And I think this activity is it! You can play this family game anywhere—from the dinner table to the carpool. You might learn a bit about each other. Maybe you'll be inspired to try some of the activities listed in these questions. No matter what, I guaranteed you'll laugh together. You'll some meaningful moments—together.

To play "raise your hand if":

1. Print these pages.
2. Read one of the statements aloud such as, "Raise your hand if you would live on the moon."
3. Anyone who answers "Yes!" raises their hand.

You would live
on the moon.

You can draw a cat . . .
that looks more like a potato than a cat.

You can make a sandwich so big that you can't fit it in your mouth.

You can chop up a piece of paper into 100 pieces.

You can juggle . . .
though only with invisible balls.

You can stand on your head.

You could eat tacos every day.

RAISE YOUR HAND IF

You eat butter straight from the stick.

You can make a really silly face right now.

You sometimes pretend the floor is lava.

You can play the piano... but only a howling dog appreciates your music.

You love dessert!

You have never, ever had a pillow fight.

You are really bad at staring contests.

You dance when no-one is watching.

You've ever named your car or bike.

You sometimes wear your socks inside out.

You talk out loud to yourself.

You can stand on your head.

You jump in mud puddles.

RAISE YOUR HAND IF

You can brush your teeth without toothpaste dripping on your shirt.

You can touch your tongue to your nose.

You can do a puzzle . . . but there's always a piece missing.

You can say the alphabet backwards.

You can clap with one hand.

You would eat ice cream for breakfast.

You dance when no-one is watching.

You sing in the shower.

You know how to say "I love you" in German.*

You can roll your tongue into a taco shape.

You have an idea for what everyone should raise hands for next.

You have tried hula hooping.
