How To Sing The Song

Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth - for your love is more delightful
than wine.

Song 1:2

Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes; your name is like perfume poured out. No wonder the young women
love you!

Song 1:3

Take me away with you - let us hurry! Let the king bring me into his chambers

Song 1:4

We rejoice and delight in you;
we will praise your love more than wine. How right they are to adore you!

Song 1:4

Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom.

Song 2:15

Not Yet

Dark am I, yet lovely,
daughters of Jerusalem,
dark like the tents of Kedar,
like the tent curtains of Solomon. Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun...

Song 1:5-6

Tell me, you whom I love,
where you graze your flock
and where you rest your sheep at midday. Why should I be like a veiled woman
beside the flocks of your friends?

Song 1:7

If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow
the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats by
the tents of the shepherds.

Song 1:8

I liken you, my darling, to a
mare among Pharaoh's
chariot horses.

Song 1:9

I am a rose of Sharon, a lily
of the valleys.

Song 2:1

Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the young women.

Song 2:2

Married

Not Yet

Hurting

A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, till he has brought justice through to victory.

Matthew 12:20

Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my beloved among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet
to my taste.

Song 2:3

... to the banquet hall, and let
his banner over me be love.

Song 2:4

Daughters of Jerusalem, I
charge you by the gazelles
and by the does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken
love until it so desires.

Song 2:7

“We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us ... We are far too easily pleased.”
