

A Happy Ending from Job 42 | May 17 | Luke Dahlenburg

How will we live until God makes all things new?

Reconciliation with God (Job 42:1–6)

Suffering can deepen our vision of God and lead us to humility, repentance, and dependence on him.

Vindication Before His Friends (Job 42:7–11)

God is just, gracious, and committed to reconciliation. The way of Jesus calls us to humility, forgiveness, and restored relationships.

Restoration of His Fortunes (Job 42:12–17)

The blessings of Job point beyond themselves to the greater hope of resurrection, eternal life, and the full restoration found in Jesus Christ.

Our Happy Ending in Jesus

Reconciliation with God (Ephesians 1:18 and Revelation 22:4)

Vindication Over Evil (Colossians 2:15)

Restoration of All Things (Revelation 21)

How will you live until God makes all things new?

- Will you repent and trust God's wisdom?
- Will you seek reconciliation with others?
- Will you loosen your grip on this life and hope in the life to come?

MY ONE THING

What's one thing that struck, challenged, or encouraged you today? Write it down and share it with someone.