Psalm 19 (New International Reader's Version)

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹ The heavens tell about the glory of God.
The skies show that his hands created them.
- ² Day after day they speak about it.
Night after night they make it known.
- ³ But they don't speak or use words.
No sound is heard from them.
- ⁴ Yet their voice goes out into the whole earth.
Their words go out from one end of the world to the other.
God has set up a tent in the heavens for the sun.
- ⁵ The sun is like a groom leaving the room of his wedding night.
The sun is like a great runner who takes delight in running a race.
- ⁶ It rises at one end of the heavens.
Then it moves across to the other end.
Everything enjoys its warmth.
- ⁷ The law of the LORD is perfect.
It gives us new strength.
The laws of the LORD can be trusted.
They make childish people wise.
- ⁸ The rules of the LORD are right.
They give joy to our hearts.
The commands of the LORD shine brightly.
They give light to our minds.
- ⁹ The law that brings respect for the LORD is pure.
It lasts forever.
The commands the LORD gives are true.
All of them are completely right.
- ¹⁰ They are more priceless than gold.
They have greater value than huge amounts of pure gold.
They are sweeter than honey
that is taken from the honeycomb.
- ¹¹ Your servant is warned by them.
When people obey them, they are greatly rewarded.
- ¹² But who can know their own mistakes?
Forgive my hidden faults.
- ¹³ Also keep me from the sins I want to commit.
May they not be my master.
Then I will be without blame.
I will not be guilty of any great sin against your law.
- ¹⁴ LORD, may these words of my mouth please you.
And may these thoughts of my heart please you also.
You are my Rock and my Redeemer.
