Exodus 15:1-8 (New International Reader's Version)

¹ Here is the song that Moses and the people of Israel sang to the LORD. They said,

"I will sing to the LORD.
He is greatly honored.

He has thrown Pharaoh's horses and chariot drivers
into the Red Sea.

² The LORD gives me strength and protects me.
He has saved me.

He is my God, I will praise him.

He is my father's God, and I will honor him.

³ The LORD goes into battle.
The LORD is his name.

⁴ He has thrown Pharaoh's chariots and army
into the Red Sea.

Pharaoh's best officers
drowned in the sea.

⁵ The deep waters covered them.

They sank to the bottom like a stone.

⁶ "LORD, your right hand
was majestic and powerful.

LORD, your right hand destroyed your enemies.

⁷ Because of your great majesty,
you threw down those who opposed you.

Your burning anger blazed out.
It burned them up like straw.

⁸ The powerful blast from your nose
piled up the waters.

The rushing waters stood firm like a wall.

The deep waters stood up in the middle of the sea.

Matthew 11:25-30 (New International Reader's Version)

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father. You are Lord of heaven and earth. You have hidden these things from wise and educated people. But you have shown them to little children. ²⁶ Yes, Father. This is what you wanted to do.

²⁷ "My Father has given all things to me. The Father is the only one who knows the Son. And the only ones who know the Father are the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to make him known.

²⁸ "Come to me, all you who are tired and are carrying heavy loads. I will give you rest. ²⁹ Become my servants and learn from me. I am gentle and free of pride. You will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ Serving me is easy, and my load is light."
