Hebrews 1:4 – 2:4 (New International Reader's Version)

<sup>4</sup> So he became higher than the angels. The name he received is more excellent than theirs.

<sup>5</sup> God never said to any of the angels,

“You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father.”

Or,

“I will be his Father.
And he will be my Son.”

<sup>6</sup> God's first and only Son is over all things. When God brings him into the world, he says,

“Let all God's angels worship him.”

<sup>7</sup> Here is something else God says about the angels.

“God makes his angels to be like spirits.
He makes those who serve him to be like flashes of lightning.”

<sup>8</sup> But here is what he says about the Son.

“You are God. Your throne will last for ever and ever.
Your kingdom will be ruled by justice.

<sup>9</sup> You have loved what is right and hated what is evil.
So your God has placed you above your companions.
He has filled you with joy by pouring the sacred oil on your head.”

<sup>10</sup> He also says,

“Lord, in the beginning you made the earth secure. You placed it on its foundations.
The heavens are the work of your hands.

<sup>11</sup> They will pass away. But you remain.
They will all wear out like a piece of clothing.

<sup>12</sup> You will roll them up like a robe.
They will be changed as a person changes clothes.

But you remain the same.
Your years will never end.”

<sup>13</sup> God never said to an angel,

“Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies
under your control.”

<sup>14</sup> All angels are spirits who serve. God sends them to serve those who will receive salvation.

<sup>2:1</sup> So we must pay the most careful attention to what we have heard. Then we will not drift away from it. <sup>2</sup> Even the message God spoke through angels had to be obeyed. Every time people broke the Law, they were punished. Every time they didn't obey, they were punished. <sup>3</sup> Then how will we escape if we don't pay attention to God's great salvation? The Lord first announced this salvation. Those who heard him gave us the message about it. <sup>4</sup> God showed that this message is true by signs and wonders. He showed that it's true by different kinds of miracles. God also showed that this message is true by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. God gave them out as it pleased him.
