Hebrews 10:19-39 (New International Reader's Version)

<sup>19</sup> Brothers and sisters, we are not afraid to enter the Most Holy Room. We enter boldly because of the blood of Jesus. <sup>20</sup> His way is new because he lives. It has been opened for us through the curtain. I'm talking about his body. <sup>21</sup> We also have a great priest over the house of God. <sup>22</sup> So let us come near to God with a sincere heart. Let us come near boldly because of our faith. Our hearts have been sprinkled. Our minds have been cleansed from a sense of guilt. Our bodies have been washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let us hold firmly to the hope we claim to have. The God who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> Let us consider how we can stir up one another to love. Let us help one another to do good works. <sup>25</sup> And let us not give up meeting together. Some are in the habit of doing this. Instead, let us encourage one another with words of hope. Let us do this even more as you see Christ's return approaching.

<sup>26</sup> What if we keep sinning on purpose? What if we do it even after we know the truth? Then there is no offering for our sins. <sup>27</sup> All we can do is to wait in fear for God to judge. His blazing fire will burn up his enemies. <sup>28</sup> Suppose someone did not obey the law of Moses. And suppose two or three witnesses made charges against them. That person would die without mercy. <sup>29</sup> People who deserve even more punishment include those who have hated the Son of God. They include people who have said no to him. They include people who have treated as unholy the blood of the covenant that makes them holy. They also include people who have disrespected the Holy Spirit who brings God's grace. Don't you think people like this should be punished more than anyone else? <sup>30</sup> We know the God who said, "I am the God who judges people. I will pay them back." Scripture also says, "The Lord will judge his people." <sup>31</sup> It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup> Remember those earlier days after you received the light. You remained strong in a great battle that was full of suffering. <sup>33</sup> Sometimes people spoke badly about you in front of others. Sometimes you were treated badly. At other times you stood side by side with people being treated like this. <sup>34</sup> You suffered along with people in prison. When your property was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew that God had given you better and more lasting things. <sup>35</sup> So don't throw away your bold faith. It will bring you rich rewards.

<sup>36</sup> You need to be faithful. Then you will do what God wants. You will receive what he has promised.

<sup>37</sup> "In just a little while,
he who is coming will come.
He will not wait any longer."

<sup>38</sup> And,

"The one who is right with God will live by faith.
And I am not pleased with the one who pulls back."

<sup>39</sup> But we don't belong to the people who pull back and are destroyed. We belong to the people who believe and are saved.
